

Some American Reviews of this Book

"booked with brilliant and illuminating passages... good reading... some of the most lucidly convincing on what may very rightly be described as Hollywood life that have yet appeared in print... Mailer has (just) taken it up casually or sporadically. He has taken it up with honest anger... his approach to his material is a burning moral." THE NEW YORK TIMES

"An excellent writer with admirable and serious intentions, serious and real... he has taken a big and worthy subject... Mailer has, I think, shown better than anyone else the position of the movie-maker, his fascination with his art, and the terror which often haunts... under a cheap and a single slogan... serious and worth the respect of the serious reader." THE ECONOMIST

"Mailer once again writes with great drive and an honesty which gives the book considerable power... a strong and convincing book." VINTAGE

"A masterpiece, serious, for spectacle and is brilliant for its characterization... The Deer Park is neither really nor deeply comic... Mailer is... Norman Mailer is... with all its flaws is a first-rate book." THE NEW YORKER

"A study of freedom as an absolute ideal... its limits, its costs, which renders a level of experience on one all recognition and to which we can aspire." THE NEW LEADER
