Choo,Catherine Beavis,2018-03-29 The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends issues and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region Comprising contributions from Australia China Hong Kong India Indonesia Malaysia Philippines Singapore and Vietnam the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national cultural and teaching contexts In doing so it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation presents practical matters concerning text selection use of literature in the language classroom innovative practices in literature education and raises pressing and important questions about the nature purpose and importance of literature education in global times The Piano Rosemary Border,1989 Recorded at slower reading speed level 5 90 wpm Suitable for people with learning disabilities and ESL learners Neo-Victorian Biofiction

,2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism s deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories Far from the Madding Crowd Thomas Hardy,1992 Far from the Madding Crowd is perhaps the most pastoral of Hardy s Wessex novels It tells the story of the young farmer Gabriel Oak and his love for and pursuit of the elusive Bathsheba Everdene whose wayward nature leads her to both tragedy and true love It tells of the dashing Sergeant Troy whose rakish philosophy of life was the past was yesterday never the day after And lastly of the introverted and reclusive gentleman farmer Mr Boldwood whose love fills him with a fearful sense of exposure when he first sets eyes on Bathsheba Ghost Stories Rosemary Border, 1989 Oxford

Bookworms offer students at all levels the opportunity to extend their reading and appreciation of English There are six stages taking students from elementary to advanced level At the lower stages many of the texts have been specially written for the series to provide elementary and lower intermediate students with an introduction to real reading in English At the higher stages most of the books have been adapted from works originally published for native speakers
