The English Studies Book Rob Pope, 2002 Designed specifically for students studying English language and or literature at universities and colleges this textbook combines critical dictionary anthology and study guide It is inter disciplinary in approach and flexible in its range of applications

The English Studies Book Rob Pope, 2005-10-05 The English Studies Book is uniquely designed to support students and teachers working across the full range of language literature and culture Combining the functions of study guide critical dictionary and text anthology it has rapidly established itself as a core text on a wide variety of degree programmes nationally and internationally Revised and updated throughout features of the second edition include a new prologue addressing changes and challenges in English Studies substantial entries on over 100 key critical and theoretical terms from absence and author to text and versification with new entries on creative writing travel writing and translation practical introductions to all the major theoretical approaches with new sections on aesthetics ethics ecology and sexuality a rich anthology of literary and related texts from Anglo Saxon to Afro Caribbean with fresh selections representing the sonnet haiku slave narratives and science fiction and with additional texts by Elizabeth Barrett Browning Charles Darwin Ian McEwan Margaret Atwood Amy Tan and others handy frameworks and checklists for close reading research essay writing and other textual activities including use of the Internet

Selected Essays on Intermediality by Werner Wolf (1992-2014) Werner Wolf, 2017-11-13 This volume collects twenty two major essays by Werner Wolf published between 1992 and 2014 all of them revised but retaining the original argument They form the core of those seminal writings which have contributed to establishing intermediality as an internationally recognized research field besides providing a by now widely accepted typology of the field and opening intermedial perspectives on areas as varied as narratology metareferentiality and iconicity The essays are presented chronologically under the headings of Theory and Typology Literature Music Relations Transmedial Narratology and Miscellaneous Transmedial Phenomena and cover a wide spectrum of topics of both historical and contemporary relevance ranging from J S Bach Mozart Schubert and Gulda through Sterne Hardy Woolf and Beckett to Jan Steen Hogarth Magritte and comics The volume should be essential reading for scholars of literature music and art history with an interdisciplinary orientation as well as general readers interested in the fascinating interaction of the arts

Jesus as the Son of 1-2 Samuel's David Marc Grønbech-Dam, 2024-05-21 Although the Gospel of Matthew emphasizes Jesus as the son of David no one has systematically investigated how 1 2 Samuel influence Matthew s portrayal of Jesus as the son of David This work addresses that lacuna and shows how the sustained use of 1 2 Samuel in Matthew evokes the themes of mercy and righteousness as the hallmarks of a proper Davidic shepherd The book s systematic intertextual and narrative approach offers another way to understand Matthew's Christology and portrayal of the kingdom of heaven. It helps the reader appreciate the justice-focused nature of Jesus' rule and its religious and political implications.

Doing English Robert Eaglestone, 2002-03-11 Aimed at students in the final year of secondary education or beginning degrees, this immensely readable book provides the ideal introduction to studying English literature. The book will orientate you by explaining what you are doing when you do English, equip you for future study by introducing current ideas, literature context and interpretation, enable you to bridge the gap between traditional and theoretical approaches to literature, showing why English has had to change and what those changes mean for you. Doing English deals with the exciting new ideas and contentious debates that make up English today, covering a broad range of issues from the history of literary studies and the canon to Shakespeare, politics and the future of English. The second edition has been revised throughout and includes a new chapter on narrative. Robert Eaglestone's refreshingly clear explanations and advice make this volume essential reading for all those planning to do English at advanced or degree level.

Studying English Literature and Language Rob Pope, 2012 This handbook, designed specifically to support students and teachers of English language literature and culture, by combining the functions of study guide, critical dictionary and text anthology.

Re-Routing the Postcolonial Janet Wilson, Cristina Sandru, Sarah Lawson Welsh, 2009-12-16 Rerouting the Postcolonial re-orientates and re-invigorates the field of Postcolonial Studies in line with recent trends in critical theory, reconnecting the ethical and political with the aesthetic aspect of postcolonial culture. Bringing together a group of leading and emerging intellectuals, this volume charts and challenges the diversity of postcolonial studies, including sections on new directions and growth areas from performance and autobiography to diaspora and transnationalism, new subject matters such as sexuality and queer theory, ecocriticism and discussions of areas of Europe as postcolonial spaces, new theoretical directions such as globalization, fundamentalism, terror and theories of affect. Each section incorporates a clear, concise introduction, making this volume both an accessible overview of the field whilst also an invigorating collection of scholarship for the new millennium.

The Use of English, 2002

Making Meaning in English David Didau, 2021-02-09 What is English as a school subject for? What does knowledge look like in English and what should be taught? Making Meaning in English examines the broader purpose and reasons for teaching English and explores what knowledge looks like in a subject concerned with judgement, interpretation and value. David Didau argues that the content of English is best explored through distinct disciplinary lenses: metaphor, story, argument, pattern, grammar and context, and considers the knowledge that needs to be explicitly taught so students can recognise, transfer, build and extend their knowledge of English. He discusses the principles and tools we can use to make decisions about what to teach and offers a curriculum framework that draws these strands together to allow students to make sense of the knowledge they encounter. If students are going to enjoy English as a subject and do well in it, they not only need to be knowledgeable but understand how to use their knowledge to create meaning. This insightful text offers a practical way for teachers to construct a curriculum in which the mastery of English can be planned taught and assessed Defining Literary

Criticism Carol Atherton, 2005-09-27 Outlining the controversies that have surrounded the academic discipline of English Literature since its institutionalization in the late nineteenth century this important book draws on a range of archival sources It addresses issues that are central to the identity of academic English how the subject came into existence and what makes it a specialist discipline of knowledge in a manner that illuminates many of the crises that have affected the development of modern English studies Atherton also addresses contemporary arguments about the teaching of literary criticism including an examination of the reforms to A Level literature Shared Waters Stella Borg Barthet, 2009 The present volume contains general essays on unequal African Western academic exchange the state and structure of postcolonial studies representing male violence in Zimbabwe s wars parihaka in the poetic imagination of Aotearoa New Zealand Middle Eastern Nigerian Moroccan and diasporic Indian women s writing community in post Independence Maltese poetry in English key novels of the Portuguese colonies the TV series The Kumars at No 42 fictional representations of India the North in western Canadian writing and a pedagogy of African Canadian literature As well as these there is a selection of poems from Malta by Daniel Massa Adrian Grima Norbert Bugeja Immanuel Mifsud and Maria Grech Ganado and essays providing close readings of works by the following authors and filmmakers Thea Astley George Elliott Clarke Alan Duff Francis Ebejer Lorena Gale Romesh Gunsekera Sahar Khal fah Anthony Minghella Michael Ondaatje Caryl Phillips Edgar Allan Poe Salman Rushdie Gh dah al Samm n Meera Syal Lee Tamahori Contributors Leila Abouzeid Hoda Barakat Amrit Biswas Thomas Bonnici Stella Borg Barthet Ivan Callus Devon Campbell Hall Saviour Catania George Elliott Clarke Brian Crow Pilar Cuder Dom nguez B rbel Czennia Hilary P Dannenberg Pauline Dodgson Katiyo Bernadette Falzon Daphne Grace Adrian Grima Kifah Hanna Janne Korkka T Vijay Kumar Chantal Kwast Greff Maureen Lynch P rcopo Kevin Stephen Magri Isabel Moutinho Melanie A Murray Taiwo Oloruntoba Oju Gerhard Stolz Jes s Varela Zapata Christine Vogt William

Teaching Poetry Amanda Naylor, Audrey Wood, 2012-05-23 Teaching Poetry is an indispensable source of guidance confidence and ideas for all those new to the secondary English classroom Written by experienced teachers who have worked with the many secondary pupils who don t get poetry this friendly guide will help you support pupils as they access understand discuss and enjoy classic and contemporary poetry With an emphasis on active approaches and the power of poetry to enrich the lives of both teachers and students Teaching Poetry Provides a succinct introduction to the major ideas and theory about teaching poetry Covers the key genres and periods through tried and tested favourites and a range of less well known new and historical poetry Illustrates good practice for every approach covered through case studies of theory and ideas in action in the classroom Includes activities ideas and resources to support teaching at Key Stages 3 4 and 5 Teaching Poetry tackles head on one of the aspects of English teaching that new and experienced teachers alike find most difficult It offers both a comprehensive introduction to teaching poetry and a rich source of inspiration and support to be mined when faced with an unfamiliar text or an unresponsive class Studying English Literature Tory Young, 2008-05-22 Studying English Literature is a unique guide for undergraduates beginning to study the discipline of literature and those who are thinking of doing so Unlike books that provide a survey of literary history or non subject specific manuals that offer rigid guidelines on how to write essays Studying English Literature invites students to engage with the subject's history and theory whilst at the same time offering information about reading researching and writing about literature within the context of a university The book is practical yet not patronizing for example whilst the discussion of plagiarism provides clear guidelines on how not to commit this offence it also considers the difficulties students experience finding their own voice when writing and provokes reflection on the value of originality and the concepts of adaptation appropriation and intertextuality in literature Above all the book prizes the idea of argument rather than insisting upon formulaic essay plans and gives many ways of finding something to say as you read and when you write in chapters on Reading Argument Essays Sentences and References Teaching Creative Writing H. Beck, 2012-10-18 Teaching Creative Writing includes lively contributions from two dozen leading practitioners in the field Topics addressed include history of Creative Writing workshops undergraduate postgraduate reflective activities assessment critical theory and information technology Radical Fictions Nick Bentley, 2007 Nick Bentley takes a fresh look at English fiction produced in the 1950s By looking at a range of authors he shows that the novel of the period was far more diverse and formally experimental than previous accounts have suggested The Embodiment of American Culture Heinz Tschachler, Maureen Devine, Michael Draxlbauer, 2003 American culture has literally become fixated on the body at the same time that the body has emerged as a key term within critical and cultural theory Contributions thus address the body as a site of the cultural construction of various identities which are themselves enacted negotiated or subverted through bodily practices Contributions come from literary and cultural studies film and media studies history and sociology and women studies and are representative of many theoretical positions hermeneutic historical structuralist feminist postmodernist They deal with representations and discursifications of the body in a broad array of texts in literature the visual arts theater the performing arts film and mass media science and technology as well as in various cultural practices Teaching Literature T. Agathocleous, A. Dean, 2002-12-16 In Teaching Literature scholars explain how they think about their everyday experience in the classroom using the tools of their ongoing scholarly projects and engaging with current debates in literary studies Until recently teaching has played second fiddle to literary research as a mode of knowledge in academia leaving new teachers with nowhere to turn for advice about teaching and no forum for discussion of the difficulties and opportunities they face in the classroom Persuading People Robert Cockcroft, Susan Cockcroft, Craig Hamilton, 2013-12-01 This fascinating and practical book explores persuasive techniques in the English language and is the ideal introduction for students and others with a professional interest in persuasion Using a wide range of lively and accessible illustrative material Robert Cockcroft and Susan Cockcroft unpick the complexities of persuasive language both written and spoken and enable readers to develop and enhance their rhetorical skills Now thoroughly revised and expanded the second edition of this successful text includes Developed application of cognitive linguistic theory which sheds new light on the emotional and logical powers of persuasion Extended and updated examples of rhetoric in action Clear pointers for further study to allow readers to continue their exploration into rhetorical theory and practice A new final chapter which invites readers to practice their skills using updated versions of traditional rhetorical exercises Northern Irish Poetry E. Kennedy-Andrews, 2014-08-18 Through discussion of the ways in which major Northern Irish poets such as John Hewitt Seamus Heaney Michael Longley Louis MacNeice and Derek Mahon have been influenced by America this study shows how Northern Irish poetry overflows national borders complicating and enriching itself through cross cultural interaction and hybridity
