Betancourt,2021-09-16 This book develops a critical and theoretical approach to the semiotics of motion pictures as they are applied to a broader range of constructions than traditional commercial narrative productions This interdisciplinary approach begins with the problems posed by motion perception to develop a model of cinematic interpretation that includes both narrative and non narrative types of productions Contrasting traditional theatrical projection and varieties of new media this book integrates analyses of title sequences music videos and visual effects with discussions on classic and avant garde films It further explores the intersection between formative audio visual cues identified by viewers and how viewers desires direct engagement with the motion picture to present a framework for understanding cinematic articulation This new theoretical model incorporates much of what was neglected and gives greater prominence to formerly critical marginal productions by showing the fundamental connections that link all moving imagery and animated text whether it tells a story or not This insightful work will appeal to students and academics in film and media studies Ideologies of the Real in Title

Sequences, Motion Graphics and Cinema Michael Betancourt,2019-08-13 This book explores the question of realism in motion pictures Specifically it explores how understanding the role of realism in the history of title sequences in film can illuminate discussions raised by the advent of digital cinema Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences Motion Graphics and Cinema fills a critical and theoretical void in the existing literature on motion graphics Developed from careful analysis of Andr Bazin Stanley Cavell and Giles Deleuze s approaches to cinematic realism this analysis uses title sequences to engage the interface between narrative and non narrative media to consider cinematic realism in depth through highly detailed close readings of the title sequences for Bullitt 1968 Kolchak The Night Stalker 1974 The Number 23 2007 The Kingdom 2008 Blade Runner 2049 2017 and the James Bond films From this critique author Michael Betancourt develops a modal approach to cinematic realism where ontology is irrelevant to indexicality His analysis shows the continuity between historical analogue film and contemporary digital motion pictures by developing a framework for rethinking how realism shapes
