Memon, 2016-03-31 The study of Islamic education has hitherto remained a tangential inquiry in the broader focus of Islamic Studies In the wake of this neglect a renaissance of sorts has occurred in recent years reconfiguring the importance of Islam s attitudes to knowledge learning and education as paramount in the study and appreciation of Islamic civilization Philosophies of Islamic Education stands in tandem to this call and takes a pioneering step in establishing the importance of its study for the educationalist academic and student alike Broken into four sections it deals with theological pedagogic institutional and contemporary issues reflecting the diverse and often competing notions and practices of Islamic education As a unique international collaboration bringing into conversation theologians historians philosophers teachers and sociologists of education Philosophies of Islamic Education intends to provide fresh means for conversing with contemporary debates in ethics secularization theory child psychology multiculturalism interfaith dialogue and moral education In doing so it hopes to offer an important and timely contribution to educational studies as well as give new insight for academia in terms of conceiving learning and education The Concept of Education in Islam Muhammad Naguib Al-Attas (Syed.), 1991 Critical Perspectives on Literature and Culture in the New World Order Washima Che Dan, Jason Sanjeev Ganesan, Noritah Omar, 2012-11-15 The fifteen chapters in this volume explore both new and tested theoretical perspectives on literature and culture at large this multiplicity of discourses is a reflection of the implicit discontent in conforming to the New World Order and a contestation against hierarchical relationships between countries which inform the social cultural and political climates of weaker nations With the political and economic hegemony of stronger nations weaker nations run the risk of being dominated or at the very least having their own national identity and sovereignty steeped in ambivalence in the face of a globalised culture This volume hopes to bring together critical views in relation to the construction of cultural studies in the Western framework the application of literary theory in the readings of vernacular literature contestation of the mainstream scientific methodology of cultural evaluation the role of English literature in Asian cultures the application of postcolonial theory in literature literary ethics in relation to Islamic literature as well as the Islamic and Western conceptions of democracy More than half of the articles in this collection centre on Islam as a guiding principle or as a context through which critical perspectives are made on literature and culture in today's globalised world order This inadvertent foregrounding of Islam reflects a continuing dialogue on and with Islam and its significant impact on existing academic discourses founded upon Western style scholarship

Religious Education in Asia Kerry J. Kennedy, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2020-08-30 The book examines ancient religious traditions and modernity in a globalized Asia that is as much in need of a moral compass as it is economic development Religious education has been an aspect of many societies over time and irrespective of culture Yet as globalization advances local values are challenged every day by internationalized discourses and global perspectives It is this context that provides the rationale for this edited book It seeks to understand what forms religious education takes in Asian contexts and what role it continues to play On the one hand the societies which are the subject of this book reflect ancient religious traditions but on the other they are responsible for a significant portion of the world's economic development The book will appeal to researchers interested in the current state of religious education in Asia policymakers with responsibility for religious education and teachers who practice religious education on a daily basis
