Oceania and until she meets Winston Smith never imagined one She s an ideal citizen of Oceania Cheerfully cynical believing in nothing and caring not at all about politics she routinely breaks the rules but also collaborates with the regime whenever necessary Everyone likes Julia But when one day finding herself walking toward Winston in a corridor she impulsively hands him a note a potentially suicidal gesture she comes to realize that she s losing her grip and can no longer safely navigate her world The passing of that note sets into motion the devastating unforgettable events of the classic story Julia takes us on a surprising journey as seen through the eyes of an indestructible young woman trying to survive in Orwell s now iconic dystopian world while laying bare our own world in bold and proactive ways just as the original did almost seventy five years ago
