Hunting Magic Eels Richard Beck, 2024-01-02 We live in a secular age a world dominated by science and technology Increasing numbers of us don't believe in God anymore We don't expect miracles We've grown up and left those fairy tales behind culturally and personally Yet five hundred years ago the world was very much enchanted It was a world where God existed and the devil was real It was a world full of angels and demons It was a world of holy wells and magical eels But since the Protestant Reformation and the beginning of the Enlightenment the world in the West at least has become increasingly disenchanted While this might be taken as evidence of a crisis of belief Richard Beck argues that it's actually a crisis of attention God hasn't gone anywhere but we've lost our capacity to see God The rising tide of disenchantment has profoundly changed our religious imaginations and led to a loss of the holy expectation that we can be interrupted by the sacred and divine But it doesn't have to be this way Hunting Magic Eels shows us that with attention and an intentional cultivated capacity to experience God as a living vital presence in our lives we can cultivate an enchanted faith in a skeptical age This new paperback edition includes a foreword from Sean Palmer as well as four new additional chapters
