Momfluenced Sara Petersen,2023-04-25 How momfluencer culture impacts women psychologically as consumers as performers of their stories and as mothers On Instagram the private work of mothering is turned into a public performance generating billions of dollars The message is simple we re all just a couple of clicks away from a better more beautiful experience of motherhood Linen clad momfluencers hawking essential oils parenting manuals baby slings and sponsored content for Away suitcases make us want to forget that the reality of mothering in America is an isolating exhausting almost wholly unsupported endeavor In a culture which denies mothers basic human rights it feels good to click purchase now on whatever a momfluencer might be selling It feels good to hope Momfluencers are just like us except they aren t They are mothers yes They are also marketing strategists content creators lighting experts advertising executives and artists They are businesswomen The most successful momfluencers offer content that differs very little from what we used to find in glossy women s magazines like Glamour and Real Simple only they re churning it out daily and that content is their lives We flock to momfluencers to learn about fashion wellness parenting politics and to find Brooklyn designed crib sheets printed with radishes Chances are if you re a mother reading this and maybe even if you're not you are an arm's length away from something you've purchased because a momfluencer made it look good. Drawing on her own fraught relationship to momfluencer culture, Sara Petersen incorporates pop culture analysis and interviews with prominent momfluencers and experts, psychologists, academics, technologists to explore the glorification of the ideal mama online with both humor and empathy. At home on a bookshelf with Lyz Lenz's Belabored and Jia Tolentino's Trick Mirror, Momfluenced argues that momfluencers don't simply sell mothers on the benefits of bamboo diapers; they sell us the dream of motherhood itself, a dream tangled up in whiteness, capitalism, and the heteronormative nuclear family. Momfluenced considers what it means to define motherhood for ourselves when society is determined to define motherhood for us.

The Heart-Home Builder: Cultivating an Inner Sanctuary with Christ amid Life's Difficulties Rachel Braunscheidel, 2018-10-25 We all have struggles in life that interrupt our feelings of peace. Burdens weigh heavy on us and we ache for a sense of refuge, hope, and belonging. In the midst of this exploration, a promise reaches out from the gospel: Jesus tells us that when we welcome him into our hearts, he will draw near and make his home with us. John 14:23. But what if this heart space was something more of a heart home? In The Heart-Home Builder, author Rachel Braunscheidel ponders what a heart home is and how we can cultivate one even in the midst of life's difficulties. Rachel shares her own experiences with chronic illness and invites you into the hope she's found despite this pain. It is an invitation and an adventure to find deep hope, grace, and belonging right in the center of our souls.

Timekeepers Simon Garfield, 2020-01-16 By the bestselling author of Just My Type, a thoroughly enjoyable and illuminating journey into the concept of time, stuffed with fascinating material. Observer UK Timekeepers is a book about our obsession with time and our desire to measure it, control it, sell it, film it, perform it, immortalize it, and make it meaningful. In this fascinating anecdotal exploration, award-winning author Simon Garfield has two simple intentions: to tell some illuminating stories and to ask whether we have all gone completely nuts. Here, Garfield explores the nature of time through stories such as the Beatles learning to be brilliant in an hour and a half, an Englishman arriving back from Calcutta refusing to adjust his watch Beethoven's symphonic wishes being ignored a US Senator's speech that goes for 25 hours the horrors of war frozen at the click of a camera a woman who designs a ten hour clock and reinvents the calendar Roger Bannister living out the same four minutes over a lifetime and a prince attempts to stop time in its tracks Digressive gossip thoughtful and thoroughly entertaining The Sunday Times UK

Kinfolk Volume 12 Various, 2014-06-03 The Saltwater Issue Kinfolk's Summer 2014 edition will explore the world's oldest and most used seasoning while also looking at it and us in its natural habitat the sea Instead of the stereotypical nostalgic summer issue full of things we've covered already swimming surfing hammocks etc this issue will focus not only on our salty theme but also on encouraging people to get outside and be spontaneous in the warm weather Sunlit euphoric photo essays will be accompanied by salty commentary and social history Think of it as a summer issue with a seasoning of culture We'd love for our readers to walk or swim away from this issue with a few of things on their minds to take themselves less seriously to not be afraid to try something new to flow with the tides or to push against them at the right moment and most importantly to build a sandcastle and have some fun This issue's double barreled concept will provide the readers both with a carefree outlook and a solid backbone of research food culture and dinner table conversation Care to put your toes in The saltwater's warm
