Ha Jin S Waiting:

Waiting Ha Jin, 2001-03-20 Winner of the PEN Faulkner Award National Book Award Winner Pulitzer Prize Finalist A New York Times Notable Book From the widely acclaimed author a rich and atmospheric novel about a man living in two worlds struggling with the conflicting claims of two utterly different women The demands of human longing contend with the weight of centuries of custom in acclaimed author Ha Jin s Waiting a novel of unexpected richness and universal resonance Every summer Lin Kong a doctor in the Chinese Army returns to his village to end his loveless arranged marriage with the humble and touchingly loyal Shuyu But each time Lin must return to the city to tell Manna Wu the educated modern nurse he loves that they will have to postpone their engagement once again Caught between the conflicting claims of these two utterly different women and trapped by a culture in which adultery can ruin lives and careers Lin has been waiting for eighteen years This year he promises will be different Ha Jin profoundly understands the conflict between the individual and society between the timeless universality of the human heart and constantly shifting politics of the moment With wisdom restraint and empathy for all his characters he vividly reveals the complexities and subtleties of a world and a people we desperately need to know Judges Citation National Book Award Waiting ,2020 An artist book mostly consisting of colourful visual prints and collages

Waiting Ha Jin, 1999 An ambitious and dedicated Chinese doctor Lin Kong finds himself torn between two very different women the educated and dynamic nurse with whom he has fallen in love and the traditional meek and humble woman to whom his family married him when they were both very young 15 000 first printing Waiting Ha Jin,

Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture Transpacific Cartographies Melody Yunzi Li, 2023-12-15 Transpacific Cartographies examines how contemporary Chinese diasporic narratives address the existential loss of home for immigrant communities at a time of global precarity and amid rising Sino US tensions Focusing on cultural productions of the Chinese diaspora from the 1990s to the present including novels by the Sinophone writers Yan Geling The Criminal Lu Yanshi Shi Yu New York Lover Chen Qian

Listen to the Caged Bird Sing and Rong Rong Notes of a Couple as well as by the Anglophone writer Ha Jin A Free Life A Map of Betrayal selected TV shows Beijinger in New York The Way We Were and online literature Melody Yunzi Li argues that the characters in these stories create multilayered maps that transcend the territorial boundaries that make finding a home in a foreign land a seemingly impossible task In doing so these maps outline a transpacific landscape that reflects the psycho geography of homemaking for diasporic communities Intersecting with and bridging Sinophone studies Chinese American studies and diaspora studies and drawing on theories of literary cartography Transpacific Cartographies demonstrates how these maps offer their readers different paths for finding a sense of home no matter where they are

On Waiting Harold Schweizer, 2008-06-03 What is the relationship between waiting and time Is there an ethics of waiting or even an art of waiting Do the internet online shopping and text messaging mean that waiting has come to an end On Waiting explores such and similar questions in compelling fashion Drawing on some fascinating examples from the philosopher Henri Bergson s musings on a lump of sugar to Kate Croy waiting in Wings of the Dove to the writings of Rilke Bishop and Carver it examines this ever present yet overlooked phenomenon from diverse angles in fascinating style

Feminism and Global Chineseness: The Cultural Production of

Controversial Women Authors Aijun Zhu, 2007 This book deconstructs the controversy of globally located Chinese women authors including Maxine Hong Kingston America Wei Hui Mainland China Li Ang Taiwan and Li Bihua Hong Kong It vividly shows how these authors are trapped in a dilemma between feminism nationalism and neocolonialism complicated by the powerful influences of global popular culture This book not only engages in the much debated major issues such as gender nation narration and globalization but more profoundly it also points out the cultural and political significance of literary and cultural criticism a much neglected area of research The author's detailed examination of Chinese nationalism from the perspectives of gender and globalization shows her sharp awareness of the changing geopolitical mapping of Chineseness Critics of Chinese literature and culture will benefit from this work in this era of social and political changes

Stranger at the Door Kristjana Gunnars, 2011-04-07 At the beginning of a new writing project whether it's the first page of a new novel or a less ambitious project writers often experience exhilaration fear or dread For Kristjana Gunnars the call of a new project is like someone you don't know knocking on your door you either choose to let the person in or not It's both exciting and dangerous to start a new manuscript This book is an engagement with that stranger called writing Creative or imaginative writing is a complex process that involves more than intellect alone Writers make use of everything their sensibilities history culture knowledge experience education and even their biology These essays seek out and gather into a discussion what writers have said about their own experiences in writing Although the writers are from around the world and of very different backgrounds the commonality of their remarks brings home the realization that writers everywhere are grappling with similar problems with the seemingly simple problems of when where why and what to write but also larger questions such as the relationship between writer and society or issues of privacy appropriation or homelessness While none of these questions can be definitively answered they can be fruitfully discussed Originating as questions posed in creative writing seminars these essays have grown into companion texts for both writers and readers who want to participate in a conversation about what writers do

The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt, 2004 If you are looking to brush up on your literary knowledge check a favorite author's work or see a year's bestsellers at a glance The Chronology of American Literature is the perfect resource At once an authoritative reference and an ideal browser's guide this book outlines the indispensable information in America's rich literary past from major publications to lesser known gems while also identifying larger trends along the literary timeline Who wrote the first published book in America When did Edgar Allan Poe achieve notoriety as a mystery writer What was Hemingway's breakout title With more than 8 000 works by 5 000 authors The Chronology makes it easy to find answers to these questions and more Authors and their works are grouped within each year by category fiction and nonfiction poems drama literary criticism and publishing events Short concise entries describe an author's major works for a particular year while placing them within the larger context of that writer's career The result is a fascinating glimpse into the evolution of some of America's most prominent writers Perhaps most important The Chronology offers an invaluable line through our literary past tying literature to the American experience war and peace boom and bust and reaction to social change You'll find everything here from Benjamin Franklin's Experiments and Observations on Electricity to Davy Crockett's first memoir from Thoreau's Civil Disobedience to Edith Wharton's Ethan Frome from meditations by James Weldon Johnson and James Agee to poetry by Elizabeth Bishop Also included here are seminal works by authors such as Rachel Carson Toni Morrison John Updike and Arthur Schlesinger Jr Lavishly illustrated and rounded out with handy bestseller lists throughout the twentieth century lists of literary awards and prizes and authors birth and death dates The Chronology of American Literature belongs on the shelf of every bibliophile and literary enthusiast It is the essential link to our literary past and present

Twenty-first-century American Novelists Lisa Abney, Suzanne Disheroon Green, 2004 Authors at the dawn of the twenty-first century focus predictably on topics that influence their society Recurring with notable frequency in the writing of contemporary American authors are issues such as the environment gender roles terrorism and ecoterrorism domestic abuse religion and spirituality technology sexual and racial identities the economy the family and its construction drug use and its social ramifications and a resurgence in regionalism
