to groups of early Christians including the Ephesians the Romans and the Trallians The early 2nd century Christian work The Shepherd of Hermas Roman letters and reports from Herod and Pilate Fables from Old Testament times such as The Books of Adam and Eve The Secrets of Enoch and the Psalms of Solomon Historical accounts including the fourth book of the Maccabees and more Included before each book are some notes on its origins Also included are frequent black and white images of etchings from early manuscripts

The Lost Books of the Bible Frank Crane, 2011-05 YOU will find between these covers all the ecclesiastical writings of early Christian authorities that are known to exist and yet were omitted from the authorized New Testament They are published here as a matter of record Whether they are canonical or not at least these writings are of very great antiquity Origins are noted in paragraphs at the front of each book This will enable the reader to form his own conclusions as to the genuineness of the writings These writings are a vivid picture of the minds of men in the post Apostolic period of the Church Discount the statements from the historical viewpoint as you will there remains in these gospels and epistles an earnestness of purpose and zeal to express a message similar to that of our authorized Bible An interesting question naturally arises as to why these writings were cast out in the selection of the material that has come down to us in the authorized version The compilation of the Bible was not an act of any definite occurrence It was a matter complicated and abstruse It was an evolution at the hands of Churchmen of various beliefs and purposes In the formulation of early church doctrines there was dissension personal jealousy intolerance persecution bigotry That out of this welter should have arisen the Bible with its fine inspiration would seem to present a plausible basis for belief in its Divine origin But who can deny that under such vicious and human circumstances much writing of as pure purpose and as profound sincerity as other that is included in the authorized Bible must have been omitted The story of the first council of Nice when Arius was commanded by the Bishop of Alexandria to quit his beliefs or be declared a heretic and his writings were ordered destroyed is eloquent of many things that happened Good men were engaged on both sides of the ecclesiastical controversies

An English bookseller, publisher, and journalist WILLIAM HONE (1780-1842) is known mostly for his satirical works and his struggle for the freedom of the English press. Lost Books of the Bible: the New Testament Apocrypha, Charles River Charles River Editors, 2013-11-27. Includes famous artwork depicting Jesus, Saints, and more. Discusses the most well-known Lost Books of the Bible, including what is discussed in them and their relation to canonical texts. Discusses historians' theories as to who wrote these books, where they were written, and when. Includes a Bibliography for further reading. The Bible is the most famous book in the world, read by a countless number of Christians and others over the centuries. Even those who aren't Christian or remotely religious can rattle off Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John as the first four gospels of the New Testament, and books like Genesis and Exodus include some of the most famous stories in human history. Of course, the Bible is composed of dozens of different texts that collectively combined to form it, and the process of establishing which texts were canonical and included in the Bible took centuries of fierce debate among early Christians. Even today, not every branch of the Christian church agrees on which writings should be regarded as canonical and which are apocryphal, even though some apocryphal texts often have noticeable links with books regarded as canonical. It was only in the late 4th century AD that a proposed list of texts for the Bible was even put forward. The New Testament Apocrypha refers to texts written by early Christians that were not included in the Bible used by the main branches of Christianity today. These texts vary in subject matter, with some being accounts of Jesus, others being about the nature of God, and still others being accounts and teachings of Jesus' apostles. What makes them fascinating is not just the history behind why they are considered non-canonical, but what they tell us about the early Church and early Christianity. Moreover, they offer insight into what sources were used to write them and whether they shared the same sources as the texts that comprise the Bible today. Given their historical and religious importance, there is still a fierce debate over the authenticity of many of these texts. Lost Books of the Bible: The New Testament Apocrypha explores the history behind the non-canonical texts, analyzes the subject matter contained within them, and looks at the debates over these texts both then and now. Along with classic artwork of Jesus and more, you will learn about the Lost Books of the Bible like you never have before, in no time at all. Lost Books of the Bible, Joseph B. Lost Books of the Bible and the Forgotten Books of Eden R. H. Platt, 1978 The Lost Books of the Bible William Hone, Jeremiah Jones, William Wake, 2006-01-12 Rediscovered in modern times these are the non canonical gospels epistles and other pieces excised from the standard Bible by various church councils in the first four centuries of the Christian era Translated from original languages and enhanced with 32 illustrations from ancient paintings and missals the text helps to give depth to the historical characters of Jesus Mary the apostles and other figures of the New Testament Publisher description Lost Books of the Bible and The Forgotten Books of Eden Platt Rutherford H (author), 1901 THE LOST BOOKS OF THE BIBLE DR. PAUL CRAWFORD, 2025-10-01 Rediscovering the Forgotten Voice of Faith Through these pages we have walked among the echoes of ancient wisdom texts once read by prophets apostles and early believers who longed to understand the mysteries of God The so called Lost Books of the Bible are not lost to time but to tradition They reveal a larger world of devotion prophecy and revelation that deepens our understanding of Scripture's unfolding story Each book whether the Book of Enoch Wisdom of Solomon Sirach Judith or Bel and the Dragon testifies to the same eternal truth that God's Spirit is never bound by the limits of men or the walls of religion His revelation continues through ages through voices humble and holy through those who sought righteousness even when the world turned away The Light That Cannot Be Hidden Though these writings were excluded from some biblical canons they preserve a light that refuses to die Their message stands in harmony with the Law the Prophets and the Gospel reminding us that divine truth transcends human classification In them we find warnings to the proud comfort to the humble and wisdom for every generation We see that the same God who spoke through Moses Isaiah and Paul also stirred the hearts of Enoch Tobit and the Maccabees The Word of God is living and active and every faithful word whether preserved in Hebrew Greek Aramaic or Ethiopian points back to Him who is the Word made flesh A Message for the Modern Believer In an age of confusion and division these forgotten writings call us back to holiness repentance and faith They remind us like Manasseh's prayer that no one is beyond forgiveness They teach through Judith's courage that faith can topple empires They reveal through Wisdom and Sirach that true understanding begins with the fear of the Lord They affirm through the Apocalypses that God's justice will prevail and His kingdom will have no end The world changes but the cry of the righteous remains the same Teach us O Lord to walk in Your ways and to know Your truth The Word That Endures Forever The so called lost books are a mirror of the divine plan though hidden they were never destroyed Though silenced they were never forgotten They remain as witnesses of God's unbroken communication with mankind proof that His truth endures from generation to generation These writings urge every reader to seek God earnestly to test all things by His Spirit and to treasure the wisdom that leads to eternal life For those who listen they are not lost books at all but found treasures of divine revelation Final Reflection The journey through these ancient texts reminds us that faith is larger than any canon and that God's revelation cannot be contained within the limits of ink and parchment The same God who spoke to Adam in Eden to Enoch in visions to Moses on Sinai and to John on Patmos still speaks today through His Word through His Spirit and through every heart that seeks Him To rediscover these writings is to rediscover a piece of ourselves a reminder that the story of God and humanity is still being written one soul at a time Key Lesson Nothing that belongs to God is ever truly lost Truth may be buried but it cannot die Every hidden word will rise again in the light of the One who said Heaven and earth will pass away but My words will never pass away Matthew 24:35
