Speculative Orientalism: Asian Religions in New Wave Science Fiction Sang-Keun Yoo, 2025-08-21 Examining the works of prominent New Wave science fiction authors from the 1950 1960s Sang Keun Yoo highlights the underexplored connection between American science fiction and Asian religions such as Taoism Buddhism and Hinduism The book considers how the major world wars of the 20th century Second World War the Cold War and the Vietnam War repositioned Asian culture in relation to the science fiction genre in the period Underpinning this study Sang Keun Yoo argues that Speculative Orientalism emerged in American science fiction during the 1950s and 60s This concept adopted various aspects of Asian religions to envision alternative worlds unburdened by the constraints of colonialism totalitarianism racism and sexism present in contemporary American society Bringing fresh perspectives to the works of William S Burroughs Philip K Dick Ursula K Le Guin and Samuel R Delany this book offers an insightful examination of the role of Asian religions in American science fiction and their impact on the genre s history

Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History David W. Kim, 2018-10-12 The localisation of a region group or culture was a common social phenomenon in pre modern Asia but global colonialism began to affect the lifestyle of local people What was the political condition of the relationship between insiders and outsiders The impact of colonial authorities over religious communities has not received significant attention even though the Asian continent is the home of many religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Islam Shintoism and Shamanism Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History presents multi angled perspectives of socio religious transition It uses the cultural religiosity of the Asian people as a lens through which readers can re examine the concepts of imperialism religious syncretism and modernisation The contributors interpret the growth of new religions as another facet of counter colonialism This new approach offers significant insight into comprehending the practical agony and sorrow of regional people throughout Asian history

Globalizing Asian Religions Wendy Smith,Hirochika Nakamaki,Louella Matsunaga,Tamasin Ramsay,2025-10-01 This book brings together the insights of theories of management and marketing to give an original view of the organizational dynamics of globalizing Asian New Religious Movements NRMs and established religions Seventeen authors in this collection have recast their data on individual Asian religions and social movements to focus on the way these organizations are managed in an overseas or global context by examining the structure organizational culture management style leadership principles and marketing strategies of the religious movements they had hitherto studied from the perspective of the sociology of religion or religious studies The book examines strategies for global proselytization and outcomes in a variety of local ethnographic contexts thus contributing to the scholarly work on the glocalization of religions

The Other in South Asian Religion, Literature and Film Diana Dimitrova,2014-01-10 This book introduces the term otherism and looks at the discourse of otherism and the issue of otherness in South Asian religion literature and film It examines cultural questions related to the human condition of being the other of the process of othering and of the representation of otherness and its religious cultural and ideological implications The book applies the perspectives of ideological criticism theories of hybridity orientalism nationalism and gender and queer studies to gain new insights into the literature film and culture of South Asia It looks at the different ways of interpreting otherness today The book goes on to analyze the ideological implications of the creation of otherness with regard to religious and cultural identity and the legitimation of power as well as how the representation of otherness reflects the power structures of contemporary societies in South Asia Offering a well thought out reflection on important cultural questions as well as a deep insight into the study of religion and otherness in South Asian literature and film this book is a pioneering project that is of interest to scholars of South Asian Studies and South Asian religions literatures and cultures

Asian Perspectives on the World's Religions after September 11 Arvind Sharma,Madhu Khanna,2013-02-15 This book offers a unique perspective on September 11 and our world after this tragic event sharing lessons from an Asian religious experience that can help heal a world troubled by religious conflicts and deepening divisions and promote a positive global transformation Existing literature regarding the events of September 11 and our world afterward has focused mostly on the West and the Middle East Asian Perspectives on the World s Religions after September 11 extends this discussion to include Asia a continent and culture far too important to be ignored in any assessment of the global impact of this event The book is organized along the following themes as they emerged post September 11th religion and civilizational dialogue religion conflict and peace religion and human rights religion and ethics religion and the arts religion hermeneutics and literature religion and gender religion and ecology and religion and globalization Individuals who are studying or teaching political science international relations philosophy ethics Asian studies or religious studies will find the text invaluable while general readers will appreciate the largely unvoiced Asian perspective on this topic

Material Culture and Asian Religions Benjamin Fleming, Richard Mann, 2014-03-26 Traditionally research on the history of Asian religions has been marked by a bias for literary evidence privileging canonical texts penned in classical languages Not only has a focus on literary evidence shaped the dominant narratives about the religious histories of Asia in both scholarship and popular culture but it has contributed to the tendency to study different religious traditions in relative isolation from one another Today moreover historical work is often based on modern textual editions and increasingly on electronic databases What may be lost in the process is the visceral sense of the text as artifact as a material object that formed part of a broader material culture in which the boundaries between religious traditions were sometimes more fluid than canonical literature might suggest This volume brings together specialists in a variety of Asian cultures to discuss the methodological challenges involved in integrating material evidence for the reconstruction of the religious histories of South Southeast Central and East Asia By means of specific test cases the volume explores the importance of considering material and literary evidence in concert What untold stories do these sources help us to recover How might they push us to reevaluate historical narratives traditionally told from literary sources By addressing these questions from the perspectives of different subfields and religious traditions contributors map out the challenges involved in interpreting different types of data assessing the problems of interpretation distinct to specific types of material evidence e g coins temple art manuscripts donative inscriptions and considering the issues raised by the different patterns in the preservation of such evidence in different locales Special attention is paid to newly discovered and neglected sources to our evidence for trade migration and inter regional cultural exchange and to geographical locales that served as contact zones connecting cultures In addition the chapters in this volume represent the rich range of religious traditions across Asia including Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Shinto and Chinese religions as well as Islam and eastern Christianities Journal of Chinese Religions ,2014

Diaspora and Belief J. R. Clammer,2009 In The Burgeoning Study Of Globalization The Study Of Religion Has Been Sorely Neglected Yet Despite The Inroads Of Modernization The Societies Of South Southeast And East Asia Remain Deeply Permeated By Religion Issues Of Identity Cultural Politics And Citizenship Are All Fundamentally Influenced By Religious Affiliation This Volume Explores The Relationship Between Globalization And Religion In Contemporary Post Colonial Asia A Situation In Which New Found Political And Cultural Autonomy Far From Leading To The Widespread Secularization Predicted By Many A Generation Ago Has Stimulated The Flourishing Of Both Traditional And New Forms Of Religious Expression This Study Examines The Interplay Between History The Contemporary Consumer Capitalism And Its Attendant Forms Of Popular Culture That Are Making Inroads All Over Asia And The Deeply Held Religious Beliefs And Institutional Memberships On Which Many National Regional And Local Identities Still Fundamentally Depend And Which Set Up The Complex Social Cultural And Personal Negotiations And Revisionings That Arise When Tradition Meets Globalization In A World Of Increasing Religious Polarization Signaled By The Putative Clash Of Civilizations The Exploration Of These Dynamics Is Empirically And Politically Important And Also Holds Many Implications For The Field Of Cultural Studies As A Whole East And West Asian Religious Studies Information ,1987 Indian Journal of Asian Affairs ,2007

Religion and the Environment: Ectheology II: Islma, Asian traditions and indigenous traditions Roger S. Gottlieb,2010 In the last two decades a new form of religiously motivated social action and a virtually new field of academic study each based in recognition of the connections between religion and humanity s treatment of the environment have developed Interactions between religion and environmental concern have been manifest in the explosive growth of ecotheological writings institutional commitment by organized religions and environmental activism explicitly oriented to religious ideals Clergy throughout the world in virtually every denomination have received word from leaders of their religion that the environment no less than sexuality poverty or war and peace is now a basic and compelling religious matter Out of this confrontation have been born vital new theologies based in the recovery of marginalized elements of tradition profound criticisms of the past and ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings Theologians from every religious tradition along with dozens of non denominational spiritual writers have confronted world religions past attitudes towards nature In the realm of institutional commitment public statements and actions by organized religions have grown dramatically In the context of political action throughout the U S and the world religiously oriented groups take part in environmentally oriented political action from lobbying and consciousness raising to activist demonstrations and civil disobedience This collection serves as a comprehensive introduction overview and in depth account of these exciting new developments The four volumes cover virtually every aspect of the field from theological change and institutional commitment to innovation in liturgy from new ecumenical connections among different religions and between religion science and environmental movements from religious participation in environmental politics to an account of the global social and political contexts in which religious environmentalism has unfolded
