Tankers International Maritime Organization, 2006 Development of Criteria for Acceptable Previous Cargoes for Fats and Oils Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2007-01-01 There are insufficient sea going vessels reserved for the transport of foodstuffs to cater for the expanding trade in fats and oils intended for or likely to be used for human consumption and it is both impractical and uneconomic to expect sea going bulk tankers to return empty to their original port of lading A practical solution adopted by the industry involves the bulk transport of fats and oils in tanks that are not exclusively reserved for the transport of foodstuffs This practice means that many chemicals are potential previous cargoes to edible fats and oils Efforts are ongoing to ensure these cargoes are not contaminated with previous ones and FAO and WHO are currently working on the provision of advice on the establishment of criteria for substances to be included in the Codex List of Acceptable Previous Cargoes this technical meeting was called so that all relevant matters would be considered

Chemical Tanker Cargo and Ballast Handling Simulator, 2007 IBC Code: International Code for the Construction and Equipment of Ships Carrying Dangerous Chemicals in Bulk: with Standards and Guidelines Relevant to the Code + Supplement May 2014 International Maritime Organization, 2007 Code for the Construction and Equipment of Ships Carrying Dangerous Chemicals in Bulk International Maritime Organization, 1985 Lloyd's Register Technical Association Session 1994-1995 Lloyd's Register Foundation, 1994-01-01

The Lloyd's Register Technical Association LRTA was established in 1920 with the primary objective of sharing technical expertise and knowledge within Lloyd's Register Publications have consistently been released on a yearly basis with a brief interruption between 1938 and 1946 These publications serve as a key reference point for best practices and were initially reserved for internal use to maximise LR's competitive advantage Today the LRTA takes a fresh approach focusing on collaboration by combining professional expertise from across LRF Group to ensure a frequent output of fresh perspectives and relevant content The LRTA has evolved into a Group wide initiative that identifies captures and shares knowledge spanning various business streams and functions To support this modern approach the LRTA has adopted a new structure featuring representatives and senior governance across the business streams and the LR Foundation The Lloyd's Register Technical Association Papers should be seen as historical documents representing earlier viewpoints and are not reflective of current thinking and perspectives by the current LR Technical Association The Lloyd's Register Staff Association LRSA changed its name to the Lloyd's Register Technical Association LRTA in 1973 Lees' Loss Prevention in the Process Industries Frank Lees, 2005-01-10 Over the last three decades the process industries have grown very rapidly with corresponding increases in the quantities of hazardous materials in process storage or transport Plants have become larger and are often situated in or close to densely populated areas Increased hazard of loss of life or property is continually highlighted with incidents such as Flixborough Bhopal Chernobyl Three Mile Island the Phillips 66 incident and Piper Alpha to name but a few The field of Loss Prevention is and continues to be of supreme importance to countless companies municipalities and governments around the world because of the trend for processing plants to become larger and often be situated in or close to densely populated areas thus increasing the hazard of loss of life or property This book is a detailed guidebook to defending against these and many other hazards It could without exaggeration be referred to as the bible for the process industries This is THE standard reference work for chemical and process engineering safety professionals For years it has been the most complete collection of information on the theory practice design elements equipment regulations and laws covering the field of process safety An entire library of alternative books and cross referencing systems would be needed to replace or improve upon it but everything of importance to safety professionals engineers and managers can be found in this all encompassing reference instead Frank Lees world renowned work has been fully revised and expanded by a team of leading chemical and process engineers working under the guidance of one of the world s chief experts in this field Sam Mannan is professor of chemical engineering at Texas A principles practice codes standards data and references needed by those practicing in the field
