Sex Drives Laura Frost, 2018-08-06 Salvador Dalí's autobiography confesses that Hitler turned me on in the highest while Sylvia Plath maintains that every woman adores a Fascist Susan Sontag's famous observation that art reveals the seamier side of fascism in bondage discipline and sexual deviance would certainly appear to be true in modernist and postwar literary texts How do we account for eroticized representations of fascism in anti fascist literature for sexual desire that escapes the bounds of politics Laura Frost advances a compelling reading of works by D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf Jean Genet Georges Bataille Marguerite Duras and Sylvia Plath paying special attention to undercurrents of enthrallment with tyrants uniforms and domination She argues that the first generation of writers raised within psychoanalytic discourse found in fascism the libidinal unconscious through which to fantasize acts including sadomasochism and homosexuality not permitted in a democratic conception of sexuality without power relations By delineating democracy's investment in a sexually transgressive fascism an investment that persists to this day Frost demonstrates how politics enters into fantasy This provocative and closely argued book offers both a fresh contribution to modernist literature and a theorization of fantasy

He indicated the distant reef which seemed as I bear witness ablaze with lights And not only the reef mark you but the sea about it a cable's length it may be to the north and the south shone like a pool of fire yellow and golden and sometimes with a rare and beautiful green light when the darkness deepened Such a spectacle I shall never see again if I sail a thousand ships That luscious green of the rolling seas the spindrift tossed in crystals of light foam running on the rocks but foam like the water of jewels a dazzling radiance aye a very carpet of quivering gold Of this had they made the northern channel How it was done what cleverness worked it it needed greater brains than mine to say I was for all the world like a man struck dumb with the beauty of something which pleases and awes him in the same breath We were just a little frightened group that stared open mouthed upon a seeming miracle If we regarded the things we saw with a seaman's reverence let no one make complaint of that The spectacle was one to awe any man nor might we forget that those who appeared to live below the sea lived there as
