Tilting at Mortality David M. Craig, 2000 This work considers Joseph Heller's career and examines each of his novels including Closing Time It pursues two complementary tracks first it explores the evolution of Heller's treatment of human morality and second it delineates Heller's artistic developments as a novelist Reading 'Catch-22' Paul McDonald, 2012-02-01 Comic novelist and critic Paul McDonald provides an accessible revealing guide to Joseph Heller's seminal anti war novel Catch 22 In order to help readers deepen their understanding of this perplexing comedy McDonald succinctly contextualises it both in relation to the author's life and key developments in modern American literature The book offers a thorough summary and analysis of the plot of Catch 22 addresses important characters such as Colonel Cathcart Lieutenant Scheisskopf Milo Minderbinder Major Major and Doc Daneeka and explains the various ways in which Yossarian's hilarious predicament has been interpreted Among other things it considers Yossarian's status as a mythic hero an individualist hero and a postmodern hero assessing his relevance to contemporary America and his re emergence in the sequel to Catch 22 Closing Time published in 1994 It also offers a descriptive bibliography of important secondary sources and links to useful online texts Contemporary Jewish-American Novelists Joel Shatzky, Michael Taub, 1997-07-16 Since World War II Jewish American novelists have significantly contributed to the world of literature This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 75 Jewish American novelists whose major works were largely written after World War II Included are entries for both well known and relatively obscure novelists many of whom are just becoming established as significant literary figures While the volume profiles major canonical figures such as Saul Bellow Norman Mailer and Bernard Malamud it also aims to be more inclusive than other works on contemporary Jewish American writers Thus there are entries for gay and lesbian novelists such as Lev Raphael and Judith Katz whose works challenge the more orthodox definition of Jewish religious and cultural traditions Art Spiegelman whose controversial MAUS R established a new genre by combining elements of the comic book and the conventional novel and newcomers such as Steve Stern and Max Apple who have become more prominent within the last decade Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the novelist's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources A thoughtful introduction summarizes Jewish American fiction after World War II and a selected general bibliography lists additional sources of information Since World War II Jewish American novelists have made numerous significant
