College Writing Skills With Readings 6th Edition:

John Langan's College Writing Skills, Sixth Edition [and] College Writing Skills with Readings, Sixth Edition, User's Guide John Langan, 2005 College Writing Skills, with Readings John Langan, 2005 Writing Skills Revisited Sandra Scott, 2009-02-01 Useful and informative Writing Skills Revisited is the must have handbook for any high school or college student who wants to improve writing skills think logically and succeed in both school and the workplace Once the basics of writing are understood students find that writing instead of being a chore is a fun and creative outlet that costs little and gives back much While teaching college level English and science courses author Sandra Scott noticed that even some of the most intelligent students were lacking in fundamental English skills She wrote Writing Skills Revisited to provide the basic tools necessary to enable all students to reach their potentials The manual helps students become skillful and proficient writers It begins with the basic parts of speech and clarifies the process of how to develop sentences paragraphs and essays culminating in how to develop a term paper Also explained is the process of how to create a workable outline and the importance of having and using a good quality outline Properly giving credit to quoted and or paraphrased information is also detailed College Writing Skills John Langan, 2010-01-27 College Writing Skills offers students a practical guide to becoming better writers From mastering the traditional five paragraph essay and its variations to learning about the finer points of grammar and punctuation College Writing Skills empowers students to take control of their writing and put it to work for them Now with the new online writing program Connect Writing and the soon to come Connect Langan an online interactive version of College Writing Skills this new eighth edition brings writing closer to students and helps to take them where they need to go Whether online or in class College Writing Skills offers students the tools to succeed Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi, Michael G. Moran, 1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs

Exploring the Cross-Language Transfer of L1

Rhetorical Knowledge in L2 Writing Xing Wei,2023-12-02 This book addresses the transfer of rhetorical knowledge from a first language L1 to a second language L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer a common cognitive phenomenon in the L2 writing of students in foreign language learning environments It investigates L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer from a cognitive perspective and examines a specific component of L2 writers agency in this transfer namely metacognition The book s ultimate goal is to enhance our understanding of the cognitive mechanism of rhetorical transfer across languages This goal is in turn connected to the need to determine how L1 rhetorical knowledge can be steered and oriented toward successful L2 writing To this end this book proposes a theoretical framework for transfer studies encompassing the dimensions of text transfer agency and L2 essay raters It facilitates an in depth exploration of the intricacies involved in L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer It then presents empirical studies on this transfer Embracing a dynamic perspective this book furthers our understanding of interlingual rhetorical transfer as a conscious or intuitive process for making meaning one that can be monitored and steered Moreover it discusses the pedagogical implications for L2 writing instruction that guides students to use metacognition to transfer L1 rhetorical knowledge during L2 writing
