Semantics Empowered Web 3.0 Managing Enterprise Social Sensor And Cloud Based Data And Services For Advanced Applications Krishnaprasad Thirunarayan:

Semantics Empowered Web 3.0 Amit Sheth, Krishnaprasad Thirunarayan, 2013 Presents a unified approach to harness and exploit all forms of contemporary Web resources using the core principles of ability to associate meaning with data through conceptual or domain models and semantic descriptions including annotations and through advanced semantic techniques for search integration and analysis

Semantics Empowered Web 3.0 Amit Sheth, Krishnaprasad Thirunarayan, 2022-05-31 After the traditional document centric Web 1.0 and user generated content focused Web 2.0 Web 3.0 has become a repository of an ever growing variety of Web resources that include data and services associated with enterprises social networks sensors cloud as well as mobile and other devices that constitute the Internet of Things These pose unprecedented challenges in terms of heterogeneity variety scale volume and continuous changes velocity as well as present corresponding opportunities if they can be exploited Just as semantics has played a critical role in dealing with data heterogeneity in the past to provide interoperability and integration it is playing an even more critical role in dealing with the challenges and helping users and applications exploit all forms of Web 3.0 data This book presents a unified approach to harness and exploit all forms of contemporary Web resources using the core principles of ability to associate meaning with data through conceptual or domain models and semantic descriptions including annotations and through advanced semantic techniques for search integration and analysis It discusses the use of Semantic Web standards and techniques when appropriate but also advocates the use of lighter weight easier to use and more scalable options when they are more suitable The authors extensive experience spanning research and prototypes to development of operational applications and commercial technologies and products guide the treatment of the material

The Semantic Web Vipul Kashyap, Christoph Bussler, Matthew Moran, 2008-08-15 The Semantic Web is a vision the idea of having data on the Web defined and linked in such a way that it can be used by machines not just for display purposes but for automation integration and reuse of data across various applications However there is a widespread misconception that the Semantic Web is a rehash of existing AI and database work Kashyap Bussler and Moran dispel this notion by presenting the multi disciplinary technological underpinnings such as machine learning information retrieval service oriented architectures and grid computing Thus they combine the informational and computational aspects needed to realize the full potential of the Semantic Web vision

Implementing Semantic Web Services Dieter Fensel, Mick Kerrigan, Michal Zaremba, 2008-09-16 Service oriented computing has become one of the predominant factors in IT research and development efforts over the last few years In spite of several standardization efforts that advanced from research labs into industrial strength technologies and tools there is still much human effort required in the process of finding and executing Web services Here Dieter Fensel and his team lay the foundation for understanding the Semantic Web Services infrastructure aimed at eliminating human intervention and thus allowing for seamless integration of information systems They focus on the currently most advanced SWS infrastructure namely SESA and related work such as the Web Services Execution Environment WSMX activities and the Semantic Execution Environment OASIS SEE TC standardization effort Their book is divided into four parts Part I provides an introduction to the field and its history covering basic Web technologies and the state of research and standardization in the Semantic Web field Part II presents the SESA architecture The authors detail its building blocks and show how they are consolidated into a coherent software architecture that can be used as a blueprint for implementation Part III gives more insight into middleware services describing the necessary conceptual functionality that is imposed on the architecture through the basic principles Each such functionality is realized using a number of so called middleware services Finally Part IV shows how the SESA architecture can be applied to real world scenarios and provides an overview of compatible and related systems The book targets professionals as well as academic and industrial researchers working on various aspects of semantic integration of distributed information systems They will learn how to apply the Semantic Web Services infrastructure to automate and semi automate tasks by using existing integration technologies In addition the book is also suitable for advanced graduate students enrolled in courses covering knowledge management the Semantic Web or integration of information systems as it will educate them about basic technologies for Semantic Web Services and general issues related to integration of information systems
