An Evocative Autoethnography of Living Alongside Myalgic Encephalomyelitis (ME) Orlagh Farrell Delaney,2021-07-30 This ground breaking book explores and explains the day to day realities of living long term with Myalgic Encephalomyelitis ME ME is an acquired complex disorder characterised by a variety of symptoms affecting multiple systems of the body Marked fatigue and weakness sickness cognitive dysfunction and symptom flare up can follow any physical or cognitive exertion It is estimated that there are 17 24 million sufferers worldwide The author has lived with moderately severe ME for the last 18 years Utilising autoethnography as a methodology and drawing on multidisciplinary social science theory the book tells the story of the author s own lived experiences of the illness and how she sought to reimagine a self or a life living alongside the illness that could still be considered a good life This autoethnographic book is beautifully and evocatively written It is a work of scholarship that will be highly accessible to academic and other readers It is also a comprehensive introduction to autoethnography as a methodology but it is much more The images and poetry complement the narrative discussion and are exemplary as part of an approach that integrates creative work with academic argument It illuminates the struggles of living with ME and how there can be sanctuary

Buying Time and Getting By Mary Grigsby,2012-02-01 Buying Time and Getting By provides a detailed account of the voluntary simplicity movement which took off in the United States in the late 1980s and early 1990s The concept of voluntary simplicity encompasses both self change aimed at bringing personal practice into alignment with ecological values and cultural change that rejects consumerist values and careerism While simple lives struggle with self change they work toward the broader goals of a sustainable global environment sustainable communities increased equality in access to resources and economies aimed at human quality of life rather than profit Author Mary Grigsby looks inside the movement at the daily lives of participants and includes their own accounts of their efforts She also uses reflexive empirical analysis to explore race class and gender in relation to the movement The influence of the dominant culture and institutionalized power in shaping the movement are balanced with the importance of participants dynamic identity work
