Fundamental Concepts of Language Teaching H. H. Stern,1983-03-24 Professor Stern puts applied linguistics research into its historical and interdisciplinary perspective He gives an authoritative survey of past developments worldwide and establishes a set of guidelines for the future There are six parts Clearing the Ground Historical Perspectives Concepts of Language Concepts of Society Concepts of Language Learning and Concepts of Language Teaching The Second Time Around □ Minimalism and L2 Acquisition Julia Herschensohn,2000-02-15 Linking recent advances in theoretical syntax and empirical research in language development the book claims that second language acquisition is not totally distinct from first language acquisition but rather is a replay a relearning of language It argues that Universal Grammar is a template guiding acquisition of L1 while constraining acquisition of L2 Assuming that a syntactic distinction crucial for language and its acquisition is the division between lexical and functional categories it argues that the key to L2 as well as L1 acquisition of syntax is the mastery of morphological features and their linking to functional categories It thus supports the availability of UG to the second language learner and the minimalist claim that cross linguistic variation is morpholexical Constructionism the hypothesis of L2A proposed in this account argues for a period of feature underspecification after loss of the L1 value followed by a progressive building of the L2 value through specific constructions Assessing Grammar James E.

Purpura,2004-11-18 Assessing Grammar provides essential reading for teachers who need to evaluate their students grammar CONTEMPORARY RESEARCH ON LANGUAGE STUDIES Dr. Öznur ATAŞ AKDEMİR, Contemporary Research on Language Studies is a collection of current research and review papers on language teaching learning studies The book compiles research and review studies on language testing vocabulary teaching authentic materials in ELT L2 writing distance learning teaching practices and MALL Shanlax Publications is proud of presenting state of the art research on language studies The Foreign Language Educator in Society Timothy G. Reagan,Terry A. Osborn,2001-12-01 This text brings together two significant domains of educational practice foreign language education and critical pedagogy linking them in a way that can help foreign language educators develop a critical awareness of the nature purposes and challenges facing foreign language pedagogy Unique among texts in the field this is the first to deal explicitly with the social political ideological and economic aspects of language language learning and language teaching in our society and to connect the practice of foreign language education with these critical and crucial aspects of language and language use The Foreign Language Educator in Society Toward A Critical Pedagogy emphasizes what teachers and future teachers of foreign languages in this country ought to know and understand about language language attitudes practices rights and policy and related issues focuses on helping students to move beyond pragmatic pedagogical concerns to the social and political concerns relevant to their teaching and provides students with the opportunity to develop critical perspectives on the central facets of the language education process Intended for foreign language education programs at both basic and advanced levels as well as courses in critical pedagogy critical language awareness sociolinguistics and social and cultural foundations of education the text provides helpful pedagogical features to direct the reader in applying the content of each chapter to his or her own context

Innovative Learning Models for Prisoners Francesca Torlone, Marios Vryonides, 2016-05-17 Prison education should be a top priority issue in most societies Prison conditions must not infringe human rights and dignity and must offer meaningful treatment programmes in order to support inmates in their rehabilitation and reintegration in society The use of ICTs within a penitentiary context plays a crucial role in that The present Volume looks at the learning potential in prisons and reports on innovative e learning pathways for basic skills education as designed and tested in Cyprus Greece Italy and Romania Research investigated on what counts as educational in such a complex context and how to combine relevant pieces in a learning mosaic the broad range of any learning opportunity across it This Volume argues that such an approach may be adopted in a wider European perspective within the frame of dynamic security

TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching, Inquiry, and Advocacy Crawford, Jenifer, Filback, Robert A., 2021-09-17 The field of TESOL encompasses English teachers who teach English as an additional language in English dominant countries and those teachers who teach English as a foreign language in countries where a language other than English is the official language This range of educators teaches English to children adolescents and adults in primary secondary post secondary popular education and language academies or tutoring centers The diversity of learners and contexts within the TESOL field presents a unique opportunity for educators to address varied educational and societal needs This opportunity calls for TESOL educators who can support the whole learner in a range of contexts for the greater social good There is an urgent need for readily reproducible and step by step research based practices and current standards in TESOL that bridge the gap between critical scholarship and equitable teaching practices This book would serve as a critical addition to current literature in TESOL TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching Inquiry and Advocacy is an essential reference that provides practical and equitable step by step guides for TESOL educators through the current best practices and methods for effective and equity minded teaching critical inquiry and transformative advocacy This book is of particular value as it bridges theories to practices with a critical look at racial and social justice in English language teaching which will lead to the integration of social justice focused practice across the new curriculum Covering topics such as integrated language instruction equity and inclusivity critical consciousness and online learning this text is essential for in service and pre service TESOL educators education students researchers administrators teacher educators and academicians Interculturality, Interaction and Language Learning Jane Woodin, 2018-05-23 This book opens up new lines of debate in language learning and intercultural communication through an investigation of tandem language learning a method of language learning based on mutual language exchange between native speakers and learners of each other's language in connection with intercultural learning and identity construction Through an empirical study of face to face tandem conversations Jane Woodin provides compelling evidence for the re definition of the tandem partnership beyond the traditional native speaker non native speaker NS NNS paradigm By analyzing conversation shapes learner identification of self and other and interactants own focus on culture this book reveals how interactants themselves address the complexities of language learning ownership and meaning The book also questions the prevalence of models of intercultural competence which describe the competence of the individual with little recognition of the role of the relationship or interaction Woodin considers the broader applicability of the tandem framework of autonomy and reciprocity and suggests new directions for further research on tandem learning Identity and Second Language Learning Miguel Mantero, 2006-12-01 This collection of research has attempted to capture the essence and promise embodied in the concept of identity and built a bridge to the realm of second language studies However the reader will notice that we did not build just one link This volume brings to light the diversity of research in identity and second language studies that are grounded the notions of community instructors and students language immersion and study abroad pop culture and music religion code switching and media The chapters reflect the efforts of contributors from Canada Japan Norway New Zealand the United Arab Emirates and the United States who performed their research in the countries just mentioned and in other regions around the world Because of this this volume truly offers an international perspective
