Discourse As Structure And Process Discourse Studies A Multidisciplinary Introductio

Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk

Discourse As Structure And Process Discourse Studies A Multidisciplinary Introductio:

Discourse as Structure and Process Teun A. van Dijk, 1997 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk The book stresses that both discourse and its mental processing have a social basis and can only be fully understood in relation to social interaction Discourse Studies Teun A. Van Dijk, 2011-03-28 Covers contemporary debates and research literature covers everything from grammar narrative argumentation cognition and pragmatics to social political and critical approaches adds two wholly new chapters on ideology and identity and puts the student at the centre Discourse Studies Teun Adrianus van Dijk, 1997 Discourse as Structure and Process Professor Teun A. van Dijk, 1997-02-11 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk Discourse as Structure and Process Teun A. van Dijk, 1997 What are the structures of discourse and what are the functions of these structures in the communicative context This volume explains how and why discourse is organized at various levels The multidisciplinary contributions illustrate that discourse analysis goes far beyond the linguistic answer of designing grammars and goes hand in hand with the study of their uses and functions in the social context Comprehensive and accessible the volume covers a huge variety of discourse genres including written and spoken and storytelling and argumentation The chapters also illustrate the necessity to examine the mental processes of the language users How do people go about producing understanding and remembering text or talk The book stresses that both discourse and its mental processing have a social basis and can only be fully understood in relation to social interaction Discourse Theory, Critical Discourse Studies and Corpus Linguistics Katy Brown, 2025-09-19 This book provides a practical guide to a novel framework combining three diverse traditions within the field of discourse studies Poststructuralist Discourse Theory Critical Discourse Studies and Corpus Linguistics By first covering a philosophical and conceptual overview to illustrate their compatibility followed by detailed steps for applying them analytically within research projects it offers an accessible framework for researchers and students interested in mixed methods approaches to discourse analysis. The way that the book introduces both the core components of each tradition and a comprehensive framework for their amalgamation means that it will strongly interest both newcomers to the field and more experienced discourse analysts. The piece aims to act as a stimulus for greater dialogue between the traditions and to encourage further development of this unique combination of methodologies.

Polyculturalism and Discourse Anja Schwarz, Russell West-Pavlov, 2007. This volume gathers together research by ten scholars engaging with multicultural discourse in Australia and Germany. The term polyculturalism rather than multiculturalism is employed deliberately to re-open a space in which the workings of discourse on culturally diverse societies both as archive or practice and as intervention can be considered in greater depth. The inter-cultural perspective and wide range of disciplinary affiliations exhibited by the essays in this volume contribute to this goal, whereas the majority of discourse analytical work addresses the diversity of speaking positions as well as the arbitrariness of ascribed meanings within a historical framework delimited by national boundaries and disciplinary boundaries. The texts collected here transgress this perspective in working comparatively between Australia and Germany.

Critical Discourse Analysis, Critical Discourse Studies and Beyond Theresa Catalano, Linda R. Waugh, 2020-09-28. This book explores the problem-oriented interdisciplinary research movement comprised of Critical Discourse Analysis (CDA) and Critical Discourse Studies (CDS) for scholars, teachers and students from many backgrounds. Beginning with a Preface by renowned CDA/CDS scholar Ruth Wodak, it introduces CDA/CDS through examples of what its research looks like, delineates various precursors to CDA/CDS and important foundational concepts and theories and traces its development from its early years until it became established. After the relationship between CDA and CDS is discussed, seven commonly cited approaches to CDA/CDS are outlined, including their connections and differences, their origins and development, major and associated scholars, research focus areas and central concepts and distinguishing features. After a summary of critiques of CDA/CDS and responses by CDA/CDS scholars, the book provides an overview of its salient connections to other interdisciplinary areas of scholarship such as critical applied linguistics, education, anthropology, ethnography, sociolinguistics, gender studies, queer linguistics, pragmatics and ecolinguistics. The final chapter describes how scholars use their knowledge of CDA/CDS to make a difference in the world.

The Spiral of "Anti-Other Rhetoric" Elisabeth Le, 2006-08-22. How do media inform our representations of the Other and how does this influence intercultural international relations? While officially dialogues between different national societies are conducted by diplomats in bilateral and multilateral settings, in practice journalists also participate every day in such dialogues through the phenomenon of the international media echo in which they report on each other's societies. Until now, media have only been investigated for their potential role in the foreign policy of specific states. In a case study involving media in three national cultures and languages (French, American and Russian), this book presents an interdisciplinary framework that combines quantitative and qualitative analyses for the study of the international media echo in an intercultural international relations perspective In particular the fundamental functioning of spirals of anti Other rhetoric i e media wars is examined in a Critical Discourse Analysis approach completed with Social Identity Theory and International Relations theories Methods in Cognitive Linguistics Monica Gonzalez-Marquez,2007 Methods in Cognitive Linguistics is an introduction to empirical methodology for language researchers Intended as a handbook to exploring the empirical dimension of the theoretical questions raised by Cognitive Linguistics the volume presents guidelines for employing methods from a variety of intersecting disciplines laying out different ways of gathering empirical evidence The book is divided into five sections Methods and Motivations provides the reader with the preliminary background in scientific methodology and statistics The sections on Corpus and Discourse Analysis and Sign Language and Gesture describe different ways of investigating usage data Behavioral Research describes methods for exploring mental representation simulation semantics child language development and the relationships between space and language and eye movements and cognition Lastly Neural Approaches introduces the reader to ERP research and to the computational modeling of language

The Discourse Studies Reader Johannes Angermuller,Dominique Maingueneau,Ruth Wodak,2014-06-19 Discourse Studies is an interdisciplinary field studying the social production of meaning across the entire spectrum of the social sciences and humanities The Discourse Studies Reader brings together 40 key readings from discourse researchers in Europe and North America some of which are now translated into English for the first time Divided into seven sections Theoretical Inspirations Structuralism versus Pragmatics From Structuralism to Poststructuralism Enunciative Pragmatics Interactionism Sociopragmatics Historical Knowledge and Critical Approaches The Discourse Studies Reader offers a comprehensive overview of the main currents in discourse studies both discourse theory and discourse analysis With short introductions elaborating the broader context the sections present key selections from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds by placing them into their respective epistemological traditions The Discourse Studies Reader is an indispensable textbook for students and scholars alike who are interested in discourse theoretical questions and working with discourse analytical methods

Handbook of Interpersonal Communication Mark L. Knapp,John A. Daly,2002-10 The Third Edition of the Handbook of Interpersonal Communication includes eight new chapters and eleven revised from the second edition Following an introductory chapter the volume is organized into four parts covering perspectives on inquiry in interpersonal communication fundamental units of interpersonal communication processes and functions and interpersonal contexts Features include Each chapter reviews and updates research in its respective area Part II examines methodological issues in the field Includes articles by top scholars in the field of Interpersonal Communication The Rhetoric of Religious Cults A. Mooney,2005-08-02 The Rhetoric of Religious Cults takes as its departure point the notion that cults have a distinctive language and way of recruiting members First outlining a rhetorical framework which encompasses contemporary discourse analysis the persuasive texts of three movements Scientology Jehovah s Witnesses and Children of God are analysed in detail and their discourse compared with other kinds of recruitment literature Cults distinctive negative profile in society is not matched by a linguistic typology Indeed this negative profile seems to rest on the semantics and application of the term cult itself

Studying Language Urszula Clark, 2017-09-16 Studying Language introduces key ideas about how English functions within its social and cultural contexts It explores core topics of study such as language variation pragmatics stylistics and critical discourse analysis Case studies provide worked analysis of sample texts suggestions for further study and a further reading section

Handbook of Reading Research Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, 2014-04-08 In Volume III as in Volumes I and II the classic topics of reading are included from vocabulary and comprehension to reading instruction in the classroom and in addition each contributor was asked to include a brief history that chronicles the legacies within each of the volume s many topics However on the whole Volume III is not about tradition Rather it explores the verges of reading research between the time Volume II was published in 1991 and the research conducted after this date The editors identified two broad themes as representing the myriad of verges that have emerged since Volumes I and II were published 1 broadening the definition of reading and 2 broadening the reading research program The particulars of these new themes and topics are addressed

Persuasive Genres Sujata S. Kathpalia, 2021-09-30 This book provides an analysis of persuasive genres in the domain of media ranging from traditional to new media genres on the internet Kathpalia provides a layered analysis of a family of persuasive genres at the functional semantic and linguistic levels and a reconceptualization of genres as empowering rather than constraining enabling rather than binding and dynamic rather than static The book leads readers to an understanding of genre that accounts for the way we interpret respond to and create genres in different settings whilst shedding light on how genres change and how they evolve into new and unique forms to meet the ever changing needs of society This book would be of interest to those studying or researching the topic of genres and those interested in reconceptualizing the way in which we interpret and understand genres from linguistic and discourse perspectives

Language, Gender and Ideology Saumya Sharma, 2018-05-08 This book explores multiple facets of femininity for marriage in India Using language as an entry point it looks at how and why media representations of gender identities are constructed the way they are It works with a unique synthesis of second wave feminist discourse and empirical linguistic research to look at how the social institution of marriage becomes the site of interaction between language ideology psyche and culture This volume also brings together the personal histories and views of women who discuss how media modernity and social norms shape their ideas about marriage and selfhood Deconstructing perceptions of femininity in contemporary India the book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of sociology gender studies linguistics media and cultural studies and psychoanalysis

Between Scientists & Citizens Jean Goodwin, 2012 This volume brings together selected papers from an interdisciplinary conference focused on effective and appropriate communication of science in the often heated controversies characteristic of contemporary democracies The forty essays represent cutting edge work from rhetorical and communication theorists studying the practices and norms of public discourse and science communication philosophers interested in the informal logic of everyday reasoning and in the theory of deliberative democracy and science studies scholars examining the intersections between the social worlds of scientists and citizens Topics include the theory and practice of public participation exercises involving experts and lay publics communication techniques for conveying uncertainty complexity and scale pseudocontroversy and manufactured doubt about science and the maintenance of trust between scientists and citizens
