Age of Propaganda Anthony R. Pratkanis, Elliot Aronson, 2001-03-14 Examines the patterns motives and effects of mass persuasion discussing the history of propaganda how the message of propaganda is delivered and counteracting the tactics of mass persuasion How to Be Less Persuaded Or More Persuasive J. Scott Armstrong, 2011 This second edition of the Age of Propaganda is excellent Should I explicitly tell you my conclusion I will use a two sided argument to try to convince you to read this book Is a two sided argument relevant in this situation and if so should I tell you the good news first or last I will reduce the asides in the rest of this review because are distracting and distraction is not useful here as the arguments to purchase this book are strong suffice it to say that these are the types of issues that the authors address Faith, Media, and Persuasion Adam Bajan, 2025-06-12 Faith Media and Persuasion explores how non denominational evangelical organizations orchestrate commercial grade entertainment media to amplify religious rhetoric Providing an in depth look at the unique socio technical situation facing evangelicals this book analyzes the unique methods of persuasion that independent churches rely on to maintain their congregant base and recruit new members in a crowded religious marketplace Scholars of media ecology media studies rhetoric and sociology of religion will find this book of particular interest Global Communications, International Affairs and the Media Since 1945 Philip Taylor, 2002-11-01 In Global Communications International Affairs and the Media since 1945 Philip M Taylor traces the increased involvement of the media in issues of peace and especially war from the nineteenth century to the present day He analyzes the nature role and impact of communications within the international arena since 1945 and how communications interacts with foreign policy in practice rather than in theory Using studies which include the Gul War and Vietnam Taylor details the contemporary problems reporting while at the same time providing a comprehensive historical context The Ruling Elite Deanna Spingola, 2012-06-15 The U S government complicit with the well connected corporations since the so called Civil War continues to wage war and destruction Lincolns revolutionary war supported by Marx and Engels caused at least 618 222 and perhaps as many as 700 000 deaths including about 50 000 Confederate civilians Soldiers who were fighting dying and killing during that war were in training for future wars If Americans could kill fellow citizens then they would use force against foreign citizens in behalf of the government That war foreshadowed the devastating global warfare that followed with the Spanish American War two World Wars Korea Vietnam the First Gulf War and the current wars in the Middle East They do not include the bombings in the Baltic and elsewhere or the CIAs covert warfare wherein millions of people died In the First World War soldiers killed 9 911 000 people in action and wounded 21 219 500 people while 7 750 000 people were missing in action for a total of 38 880 500 In the Second World War there were over 24 000 000 military deaths and 49 000 000 civilian deaths totaling 73 000 000 deaths not including the number of wounded or missing That is 82 911 000 deaths in two world wars The real question is WHY Humans in the Cyber Loop Dorota Domalewska, Aleksandra Gasztold, Agnieszka

Wrońska, 2025-07-10 Humans in the Cyber Loop Perspectives on Social Cybersecurity addresses the evolving role of humans in cyberspace through an analysis of how digital interactions and advancements both shape and are shaped by societal economic and political factors. The book systematically explores social cybersecurity, the impact of disinformation on democratic processes, the influence of social media on public opinion, and the implications of algorithmic decision making to demonstrate the importance of building societal resilience to cyber attacks and to better understand specific needs and challenges in this domain. Excerpt from a review by Prof. Danuta Ka mierzak, University of the National Education Commission, Kraków. The authors treat cyberspace as an ecosystem composed of networks of organizations, individuals, and technologies whose dynamics are defined by the multidimensional relationships of these components. The book contains analyses and examples that allow a greater understanding of the processes, phenomena, and mechanisms occurring in societies created at the intersection of the real and virtual worlds.

The Rhetoric of Cicero in its Medieval and Early Renaissance Commentary Tradition Virginia Cox, John Ward, 2018-11-12. This multi-authored volume by an authoritative team of international scholars examines the transmission of Ciceronian rhetoric in medieval and early Renaissance Europe, concentrating on the fortunes in particular of the two dominant classical rhetorical textbooks of the time: Cicero's early De inventione and the contemporary pseudo-Ciceronian Rhetorica ad Herennium. The volume is unprecedented in range and depth as a presentation of the place of classical rhetoric in medieval culture and will serve to revise views of a period seen until recently as largely indifferent to the values of eloquence. The main body of the volume is composed of a series of ground-breaking studies of the relationship between Ciceronian rhetoric and a wide range of intellectual traditions and cultural practices, including dialectic, law, conduct theory, memory, poetics, and practical composition, teaching, preaching, ars dictaminis, and political oratory. Also included are important contextualizing essays on the commentary tradition of the Ciceronian juvenilia, on the textual history and manuscript transmission of Cicero's rhetorical works, and on the Latin and vernacular traditions of Ciceronian rhetoric in Italy. The volume concludes with an annotated appendix of illustrative texts containing extracts from the commentary tradition on Ciceronian rhetoric, most of which have not been previously available in print.

The Holocaust Ryan Barrick, Abigail S. Gruber, David Misal, 2014-04-11. This book is a collection of seventeen scholarly articles which analyze Holocaust testimonies, photographs, documents, literature, and films, as well as teaching methods in Holocaust education. Most of these essays were originally presented as papers at the Millersville University Conferences on the Holocaust and Genocide from 2010 to 2012. In their articles, the contributors discuss the Holocaust in concentration camps and ghettos, as well as the Nazis' methods of exterminating Jews. The authors analyze the reliability of photographic evidence and eyewitness testimonies about the Holocaust. The essays also describe the psychological impact of the Holocaust on survivors, witnesses, and perpetrators, and upon Jewish identity in general after the Second World War. The scholars explore the problems of the memorialization of the Holocaust in the Soviet Union and the description of the Holocaust in

Russian literature Several essays are devoted to the representation of the Holocaust in film and trace the evolution of its depiction from the early Holocaust movies of the late 1940s early 1950s to modern Holocaust fantasy films They also show the influence of Holocaust cinema on feature films about the Armenian Genocide Lastly several authors propose innovative methods of teaching the Holocaust to college students The younger generation of students may see the Holocaust as an event of the distant past so new teaching methods are needed to explain its significance This collection of essays based on new multi disciplinary research and innovative methods of teaching opens many unknown aspects and provides new perspectives on the Holocaust

What is the New Rhetoric? Susan E. Thomas,2009-03-26 The Age of Information has spawned a critical focus on human communication in a multimedia world particularly on theories and practices of writing With the worldwide web impacting increasingly on academic and business communication the need has never been greater for advanced study in writing communication and critical thinking across all genres sectors and cultures In recent decades the definitions of new rhetoric have expanded to encompass a variety of theories and movements raising the question of how rhetoric is understood and employed in the twenty first century The essays collected here represent variations on these themes with each attempting to answer the title s deliberately provocative question addressing particularly How the classical art of rhetoric is still relevant today How it is directly related to modern technologies and the new modes of communication they have generated How rhetorical practice is informing research methodologies and teaching and learning practices in the contemporary academy
