A Treatise on White Magic Alice Bailey, 2019-09. I seek in this book to do four things and to make appeal to three types of people. It is based as regards its teaching upon four fundamental postulates. These are intended to: 1. Teach the laws of spiritual psychology as distinguished from mental and emotional psychology. 2. Make clear the nature of the soul of man and its systemic and cosmic relationships. This will include its group relationship as a preliminary step. 3. Demonstrate the relations between the self and the sheaths which that self may use and thus clarify public thought as to the constitution of man. 4. Elucidate the problem of the supernormal powers and give the rules for their safe and useful development. We stand now towards the close of a great transition period and the subtler realms of life are closer than ever before. Unusual phenomena and inexplicable happenings are commoner than at any time heretofore, whilst matters telepathic, psychic, and peculiar occupy the attention even of sceptics, scientists, and religionists. Reasons for the appearance of phenomena are being everywhere sought, and societies are formed for their investigation and demonstration. Many are likewise going astray in the effort to induce in themselves psychic conditions and the energy-producing factors which give rise to the manifestation of peculiar powers. This book will endeavor to fit the information given into the scheme of life as we today recognize it and will show how basically natural and true is all that is termed mysterious. All is under law, and the laws need elucidation now that man's development has reached the stage of a juster appreciation of their beauty and reality.

A Treatise on White Magic Alice Bailey, 2012-05-01. 2012 Reprint of 1945 Edition. Exact facsimile of the original edition, not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software. A Treatise on White Magic is considered to be one of her most important writings, as it is less abstract than most and deals with many important subjects of her works in an introductory, even programmatic fashion. It was first published in 1934 with the subtitle The Way of the Disciple. She promulgated White Magic as a discipline to serve humanity. Bailey said the work was dictated telepathically by the Tibetan Master Djwal Khul. It is offered as a basic textbook for the Western aspirant to initiation and is divided into fifteen rules of magic, each one taking the reader further into the mysteries of spirituality. Topics discussed include how an aspirant can best prepare himself for service, the various ray types of their influences the relationship between the macrocosm and microcosm the spiritual causal astral and physical realms and their interactions the spiritual psychology of man although this is dealt with much more fully in the Esoteric Psychology volumes The Hierarchy of Masters esoteric groups and schools the spiritual centers or chakras the occult concept of the Seven Rays meditation work and much more One of the main themes is that of soul control Students of the works of Alice A Bailey and Theosophy believe that the ultimate purpose of White Magic is furtherance of the spiritual and material evolution of humanity Specifically this evolution is conceived in terms of the increased benevolent manifestation of seven spiritual energies or Seven Rays It is further believed that adept practitioners of White Magic wielding the power of the Seven Rays can contribute to this evolution

A Treatise on White Magic : Or Alice Anne Bailey,1945      Treatise on White Magic Alice A. Bailey,2012      A Treatise On White Magic Alice a Bailey,2022-11-18 Throughout the whole of this series of books runs a single thread uniting various aspects of life and specialised activities within the Plan for man This is the thread of consciousness evolving in man through the efforts of the soul to contact and control its personality equipment and evolving within the planet as the centre Hierarchy becomes increasingly able to impress the Plan on the minds of men This book therefore contains the Fifteen Rules for Magic and for soul control based on these words in the Bhagavad Gita Though I am Unborn the Soul that passes not away though I am the Lord of Being yet as Lord over My nature I become manifest through the magical power of the Soul The soul unmanifest in its essential being manifest through the nature of its personality equipment is always a source of mystery It evades the analytical concrete mind it reveals its true self to the illumined mind fused with the open heart seeking not to grasp and to hold for personal progress but to wield the magical power in service The power of the soul is always available to the one who seeks as an aspirant to accepted discipleship to become of practical service in his own peculiar times state and environment The teaching in this book is based on four fundamental postulates which will

- 1 Teach the laws of spiritual psychology as distinguished from mental and emotional psychology
- 2 Make clear the nature of the soul of man and its systemic and cosmic relationships This will include its group relationship as a preliminary step
- 3 Demonstrate the relations between the self and the sheaths which that self may use and thus clarify thought as to the constitution of man
- 4 Elucidate the problem of supernormal powers and give the rules for their safe and useful development

Through these underlying postulates runs the theme of energy of the one informing life as a centre of energy pervading and uniting all within the divine flow Man is essentially and inherently divine and the soul the centre of consciousness the result of the pervasive union of Spirit with matter is the means whereby man evolves a consciousness of divinity and unity redeems the gross matter of his vehicles and liberates the pure flame of life energy from the limitation of form The soul is the vital link therefore between God and man The book closes with a rousing call to the soul in all aspirants I close with an appeal to all who read these instructions to rally their forces to renew their vows of dedication to the service of humanity to subordinate their own ideas and wishes to the group good to take their eyes off themselves and fix them anew upon the vision Let all students make up their minds in this day of emergency and of opportunity to sacrifice all they have to the helping of humanity I call upon all of you to join the strenuous efforts of the Great Ones
