Women Under Islam Christina Jones-Pauly, Abir Dajani Tuqan, 2011-04-30 How Islam treats women is one of the most hotly contested questions of our times Islamic law is often misrepresented as a single monolithic concept rather than a collection of different interpretations and practices To move the debate on Islamic law and gender forward it is necessary to establish how Islamic law actually operates This groundbreaking work explores what conditions sustain the most liberal interpretation of Islamic law on gender issues It examines the different interpretations histories and practices of Islamic law in different countries It finds that the political independence of judicial institutions is a far more important factor than the relative conservatism of the society This wide ranging book will provide new insights not only for those studying law and gender but for anyone with an interest in Islamic societies

Humanism in the Renaissance of Islam Joel L. Kraemer, 1992 Under the enlightened rule of the Buyid dynasty 945 1055 A D the Islamic world witnessed an unequalled cultural renaissance This book is an investigation into the nature of the environment in which the cultural transformation took place and into the cultural elite who were its bearers After an extensive introductory section setting the stage the book deals with the main schools and circles and with the outstanding individual representatives of this renaissance The main expression of this renaissance was a philosophical humanism that embraced the scientific and philosophical heritage of Classical Antiquity as a cultural and educational ideal Along with this philosophical humanism a literary humanism was cultivated by litterateurs poets and government secretaries This renaissance was marked by a powerful assertion of individualism in the domains of literary creativity and political action It thrived in a remarkably cosmopolitan atmosphere

Baghdad the center of the Abbasid empire and of Buyid rule Piety, Politics, and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam Robert Rozehnal, 2018-12-27 This book explores the diversity and dynamism of Islam in Southeast Asia through the concept of adab or beautiful behavior. Amid the complexity of Islamic civilization, adab provides Muslims with a shared sense of sacred history, identity, and morality. In the context of Islamic ethics, adab defines the rules of personal and public etiquette, good manners, proper conduct, civility, and humaneness. Featuring the interdisciplinary research of nine prominent scholars of Islam, the book offers new perspectives on adab's multiple meanings and myriad applications for Muslim communities in Malaysia and Indonesia. The chapters examine a wide range of texts, spotlighting the writings of prominent Muslim thinkers and contexts focusing on the everyday experiences of lay Muslims. Drawing on a variety of theoretical and methodological lenses, the essays reveal how beautiful behavior impacts local institutions, cultural practices, and religious imaginations via politics and law, spirituality, and piety, ethics, and experience. With its careful textual analysis, detailed case studies, and attention to historical continuities and disjunctures, Piety, Politics, and Everyday Ethics in Southeast Asian Islam is essential reading for students and scholars interested in global Islam and the lived local dynamics of Muslim Southeast Asia. Slave Soldiers and Islam Daniel Pipes, 1981 De islamiske religiøse idealer medførte at muslimerne ikke gerne engagerede sig i krig eller regeringsanliggender, hvorfor de gennem tiderne systematisk skaffede sig udenlandske slaver som blev uddannet og anvendt som professionelle soldater. Første gang omkring 815-820 f.eks. er det berømt tyrkiske janitscharkorps, der bestod af osmanniske elitesoldater skabt i det seneste 1300-tal af kristne krigsfanger. Humanism in the Renaissance of Islam Kraemer, 2023-03-20 Under the enlightened rule of the Buyid dynasty 945-1055 A.D. the Islamic world witnessed an unequalled cultural renaissance. This book is an investigation into the nature of the environment in which the cultural transformation took place and into the cultural elite who were its bearers. After an extensive introductory section setting the stage, the book deals with the main schools and circles and with the outstanding individual representatives of this renaissance. The main expression of this renaissance was a philosophical humanism that embraced the scientific and philosophical heritage of Classical Antiquity as a cultural and educational ideal. Along with this philosophical humanism, a literary humanism was cultivated by litterateurs, poets, and government secretaries. This renaissance was marked by a powerful assertion of individualism in the domains of literary creativity and political action. It thrived in a remarkably cosmopolitan atmosphere. Baghdad, the center of the Abbasid empire and of Buyid rule. Islam and Modernity Fazlur Rahman, 1982 The author counsels and demonstrates that for Islam to be what Muslims claim it to be, comprehensive in scope and efficacious for every age and place, Muslim scholars and educationists must reevaluate their methodology and hermeneutics. book cover Islam & Modernity Fazlur Rahman, 2017-07-21 As Professor Fazlur Rahman shows in the latest of a series of important contributions to Islamic intellectual history, the characteristic problems of the Muslim modernists, the adaptation to the needs of the contemporary situation of a holy book which draws its specific examples from the conditions of the seventh century and earlier are by no means new In Professor Rahman s view the intellectual and therefore the social development of Islam has been impeded and distorted by two interrelated errors The first was committed by those who in reading the Koran failed to recognize the differences between general principles and specific responses to concrete and particular historical situations This very rigidity gave rise to the second major error that of the secularists By teaching and interpreting the Koran in such a way as to admit of no change or development the dogmatists had created a situation in which Muslim societies faced with the imperative need to educate their people for life in the modern world were forced to make a painful and self defeating choice either to abandon Koranic Islam or to turn their backs on the modern world Bernard Lewis New York Review of Books In this work Professor Fazlur Rahman presents a positively ambitious blueprint for the transformation of the intellectual tradition of Islam theology ethics philosophy and jurisprudence Over the voices advocating a return to Islam or the reestablishment of the Sharia the guide for action he astutely and soberly asks What and which Islam More importantly how does one get to normative Islam The author counsels and passionately demonstrates that for Islam to be actually what Muslims claim it to be comprehensive in scope and efficacious for every age and place Muslim scholars and educationists must reevaluate their methodology and hermeneutics In spelling out the necessary and sound methodology he is at once courageous serious and profound Wadi Z Haddad American Arab Affairs

A Dictionary of Islam Thomas Patrick Hughes,1885 Orphans of Islam Jamila Bargach,2002 Orphans of Islam portrays the abject lives and excluded body of abandoned and bastard children in contemporary Morocco while critiquing the concept and practice of adoption which too often is considered a panacea Through a close and historically grounded reading of legal social and cultural mechanisms of one predominantly Islamic country Jamila Bargach shows how the surplus bastard body is created by mainstream society Written in part from the perspectives of the children and single mothers intermittently from the view of adopting families and employing bastardy as a haunting and empowering motif with a potentially subversive edge this ethnography is composed as an intricate open ended and arabesque like evocation of Moroccan society and its state institutions It equally challenges received sociological and anthropological tropes and understandings of the Arab world

Gendered Morality Zahra M. S. Ayubi,2019-07-30 Islamic scriptural sources offer potentially radical notions of equality Yet medieval Islamic philosophers chose to establish a hierarchical male centered virtue ethics In Gendered Morality Zahra Ayubi rethinks the tradition of Islamic philosophical ethics from a feminist critical perspective She calls for a philosophical turn in the study of gender in Islam based on resources for gender equality that are unlocked by feminist engagement with the Islamic ethical tradition Developing a lens for a feminist philosophy of Islam Ayubi analyzes constructions of masculinity femininity and gender relations in classic works of philosophical ethics In close readings of foundational texts by Abu Hamid Muhammad al Ghazali Nasir ad Din Tusi and Jalal ad Din Davani she interrogates how these thinkers conceive of the ethical human being as an elite male within a hierarchical cosmology built on the exclusion of women and nonelites Yet in the course of prescribing ethical behavior the ethicists speak of complex gendered and human relations that contradict their hierarchies Their metaphysical premises about the nature of the divine humanity and moral responsibility indicate a potential egalitarian core Gendered Morality offers a vital and disruptive new perspective on patriarchal Islamic ethics and metaphysics showing the ways in which the philosophical tradition can support the aims of gender justice and human flourishing Islam The Religion Of Truth Osman Nuri Topbaş, Humanity has never been able to remain independent from religion due to their inherent predisposition to belief They have always been in search for the truth and the true religion Academic research has shown that a belief in Allah in one way or another and remnants of true religion were unfailingly present in every tribe and society Islam since the day it was born has been the religion speaking the needs of all humanity and again been the only true religion that is acceptable and recognized in the presence of Allah This book introduces the religion of Islam in the light of the verses of the Qur an authentic sayings of the Prophet Muhammad and the examples from the lives of the Muslim scholars
