Gower,2022-05-25 In 1973 Betsy Ann Plank became the first woman to chair the Public Relations Society of America in its twenty five year history It was a tumultuous time to assume the national association s leadership Civil society seemed to be fraying at the edges and trust in political institutions and corporations had plummeted in the aftermath of Watergate. Nevertheless Plank in her fearless style took up the challenge head on. From the start and throughout the span of her sixty three year career in public relations she managed to overcome the very real barriers she faced due to gender based discrimination in what was a male dominated industry. As a PR practitioner Plank served as executive vice president of Daniel J Edelman Inc, director of PR planning at AT T and assistant vice president of external affairs at Illinois Bell. Beyond her service in the professional realm Plank grew her legacy by taking the time to mentor countless PR professionals, educators and students. She saw this dissemination of knowledge as her greatest gift to the field of public relations. In this highly readable biography Karla Gower explores Plank's personal life and career, tracing her evolution from a low level job in advertising through her contributions to the rise of the rapidly changing PR industry in the 1960s and the evolution of her personal devotion to the enhancement of public relations education.
