Dinosaur Brains Albert J. Bernstein,Sydney Craft Rozen,1989-03-20 This book will help you deal with your employees and co workers by giving you the keys to understanding the way their brains and yours work Using the metaphor of the dinosaur brain the authors detail a whole range of human responses dictated by a part of the human brain sometimes beyond our control They then show you what to expect from that part of the brain and how to be prepared for it including such problems as turf battles reflexive competitiveness and office courtship Outlines the rules of lizard logic and how to use them to your advantage

How to Deal with Emotionally Explosive People Albert J. Bernstein, 2002-12-30 In his international bestseller Dinosaur Brains psychologist Albert J Bernstein told readers how to deal with difficult people at work Now in a groundbreaking new book Bernstein tackles a more serious problem that profoundly affects the lives of millions of people walking time bombs How do you help a friend who explodes into panic attacks What do you say when a depressed family member bursts into tears How do you protect yourself when a stranger blows up in your face Too often our choices make matters worse But it isn't our fault All that we feel and much of what we hear directs us to defend the fearful comfort the sad and talk sense to the angry regardless of the utter futility of these well meaning actions Moment to moment people with mental disorders stand at the crossroads between getting better and getting worse For disorders to heal medicine psychotherapy the encouragement of friends and the kindness of strangers must all point explosive people toward a single direction People with anxiety disorders must turn and face their fear rather than running away Depressed people cannot wait to feel better to do the things that will make them feel better Angry people have to recognize that anger is something they do not a reaction to what is done to them Reaching these goals sometimes requires stunning feats of mind over matter In How to Deal with Emotionally Explosive People Dr Bernstein demonstrates step by step how to do them
