African Development Making Sense Of The Issues And Actors:

African Development Todd J. Moss, 2007 In the ongoing battle against global poverty the countries of Africa continue to present the greatest challenge African Development offers a comprehensive introduction to the issues actors and institutions interacting across the diverse continent Each issue chapter is organized around three fundamental questions Where are we now How did we get to this point What are the current debates Interspersed throughout are vivid sidebars acquainting the student with ten well known big men and ten equally important but lesser known African actors The text also includes the ABCs of development jargon The Contemporary Challenges of African Development: Jean Philippe Azany

Grah, 2020-11-17 In 1963 there was a French agronomist named Ren Dumont who published a book False start in Africa in this book it explains the economic and development difficulties that Africa was facing so since then what is the real situation of Africa today The book is a theory led conceptual account of the contemporary challenges that face African Development and the factors that may interact and influence at the interface of Africa development African natural resources play vital roles in the world economic by providing the raw materials that most of the industrialized countries need for manufacturing goods and supplying services in every sector for economic growth and well being How come that Africa which is full of these natural resources can be the poorest continent Africa has steadily engaged in the challenges of the twenty first century which began at the beginning of liberalization which has increased economic integration even for less developed countries or LDCs to benefit However there are questions about the capabilities of countries belonging LDC especially Africa which has cast doubt on the continent's economic progress and development The growing list of number of key considerations and aspects that Africa needs to deal with is seemed to be impossible to know what to start Theology as Construction of Piety David T. Ngong, 2013-12-10 This book argues that a primary purpose of theological discourses is to construct piety or spirituality If this is the case theologians need to constantly inquire into the kind of piety or spirituality which their work may construct Drawing from some important moments in the development of Christian theology such as the development of the Christian doctrine of God in the early church the role of material things in the Christianity of medieval Europe some elements of contemporary postliberal theology and the theology of inculturation in Africa the book argues that theological discourses that appear to be orthodox and innocuous may actually construct forms of piety that may diminish human flourishing The book therefore calls for an ethics of theology intended to ensure that the theologies we construct help in developing a piety that is conducive to human flourishing in the modern world especially for Africans who have suffered and continue to suffer unspeakable dehumanization The book proposes that a theology that may contribute to the flourishing of Africans in the modern world is one that constructs an interdisciplinary spirituality that takes both the spiritual and the scientific seriously

Management in Africa Terri R. Lituchy, Betty Jane Punnett, Bill Buenar Puplampu, 2013 This book offers a comprehensive look at the current literatures and research based on empirical data from across different countries in Africa It focuses on the

Africa Under Neoliberalism Nana Poku, Jim Whitman, 2017-10-10 The period since the 1980s has seen sustained pressure on Africa's political elite to anchor the continent's development strategies in neoliberalism in exchange for vitally needed development assistance Rafts of policies and programmes have come to underpin the relationship between continental governments and the donor communities of the West and particularly their institutions of global governance the International Financial Institutions Over time these policies and programmes have sought to transform the authority and capacity of the state to effect social political and economic change while opening up the domestic space for transnational capital and ideas The outcome is a continent now more open to international capital export oriented and liberal in its political governance Has neoliberalism finally arrested under development in Africa Bringing together leading researchers and analysts to examine key questions from a multidisciplinary perspective this book involves a fundamental departure from orthodox analysis which often predicates colonialism as the referent object Here three decades of neoliberalism with its complex social and economic philosophy are given primacy With the changed focus an elucidation of the relationship between global development and local changes is examined through a myriad of pressing contemporary issues to offer a critical multi disciplinary appraisal of challenge and change in Africa over the past three decades

Historical Sociology of State Formation in the Horn of Africa Redie Bereketeab, 2023-03-28 This book analyses the historical sociology of state formation in the Horn of Africa It examines the genesis trajectories processes routes and consequences of the evolution of state formation Three analytical and explanatory models explain the process of state formation in the HOA proto state colonial and national liberation The models heuristically and innovatively provide understanding interpretation and analysis of state formation While the proto state model explicates an indigenous historical process of state formation the colonial model refers to an externally designed and imposed process of state formation The national liberation model concern state formation conducted under liberation movement and ideology The distinct significance of these models is that collectively they generate sufficient analysis of state formation They are also unique in that they have never been employed as aggregate analytical and explicative instruments to address the predicament of state formation in the Horn of Africa

Indigenous Knowledge Emmanuel O. Oritsejafor, 2022-07-20 In Indigenous Knowledge An Alternative for Food Security and Wellness in Africa Emmanuel O Oritsejafor argues that Indigenous Knowledge IK needs to play a central role in addressing food insecurity because IK methods result in sustainable agricultural practices which improve wellness The application of IK in global communities demonstrates why it is an invaluable development alternative For instance Native Indians in the America s have survived over several generations using IK for agriculture and wellness purposes Oritsejafor establishes the severity and breadth of food insecurity on the continent of Africa and critiques the western led development model which has proven to be inadequate in solving Africa s food security needs In this regard Oritsejafor suggests that indigenous knowledge IK should serve as one of the central models for addressing food security because it takes into account consideration for the specificities of local conditions and relies on the knowledge and the environment of African communities Contrarily he posits that the reliance on modern technologies have not been able to halve hunger and poverty in Africa

Civil Wars and Third-Party Interventions in Africa Audrey Mattoon,2017-01-20

This book explores the impact and efficiency of Western intervention in African civil wars Emphasizing the relational conditions to the study of interventions it posits the importance of historical institutional relationships not just in the decision to intervene but also in the process of intervention and its outcome Drawing from case studies of American and European intervention in Sierra Leone C te d Ivoire and Mali the author applies a multi method research design to identify the role colonial legacy plays in shaping the success of interventions Her analysis concludes that the relational context of interventions helps determine the likelihood of success and that not all states are appropriately equipped to intervene in all civil wars which is not simply a function of defense spending on materials This book thus speaks to both academics and policy makers specializing in conflict resolution and conflict dynamics in modern African civil wars

Power, Patronage, and the Local State in Ghana

Barry Driscoll,2023-07-11 How have the waves of democracy and decentralization that swept the developing world in recent decades affected states among the most important drivers of poverty and prosperity at national and local levels in Ghana and beyond State actors beneath the national level what Barry Driscoll calls the local state have considerable responsibility for carrying out state functions but they are also forced to compete for these local state offices How does a local state actually work in poor twentieth century countries This book offers a descriptive account as well as a causal explanation of how political competition affects the local state in Ghana Driscoll shows how closely fought elections drive local state institutions to provide patronage The source of these demands for patronage comes not from rent seeking bureaucrats or landed elites but from the government s own party volunteers Driscoll explains how electoral competition affects how local state actors are insulated from such patronage demands Moreover these highly competitive patronage providing local governments actually have relatively better qualified senior civil servants at their disposal Driscoll makes sense of this paradox by introducing the logic of building administrative capacity in order to provide patronage He then abstracts from the case of Ghana to generalize about how the effect of political competition is shaped by the locally salient variety of clientelism which in turn is conditioned by the strength of the party system The book draws on fourteen months of fieldwork in six of Ghana s districts far from the nation s capital city Ethnographic and interview data come from time spent with market traders tax collectors politicians and other figures in local state offices Quantitative data come from a survey covering almost all local governments The result is a detailed account of Ghana s local state power dynamics that has relevant implications for states across the developing world China-Africa Relations in an Era of Great Transformations Li Xing,Abdulkadir Osman Farah,2016-05-23

This collection juxtaposes a variety of approaches about China and Africa and their interrelations seeking to go beyond early simplistic formulations Perspectives informed by Polanyi advance nuanced analysis of varieties of capitalisms and double movements It seeks to put contemporary China Africa relations in critical comparative context and in doing so it will go beyond descriptions of inter regional trade and investment large and small scale sectors to ask whether structural change is underway Already it is apparent that the growing presence of China in Africa presents the latter with some novel options but whether these will generate a new embeddedness remains problematic Highlighting the varieties of capitalisms in the new century given the undeniable difficulties of extreme neo liberalism in the US and UK by contrast to the apparent ebullience of the emerging economies in the global South this book examines such implications for international relations international political economy development studies and policies In the Heat of Africa's Underdevelopment W. Forje,2019-08-23 The ever growing disparity in living standards between the developed and developing polities constitutes a striking feature of life on Planet Earth This publication is an attempt to highlight some of the factors dividing the worlds apart A new North South synergy is needed in creating a balanced world at peace with itself As long as more than half the population of the world go to bed hungry there can be no peace A sting rich world and a sting poor world cannot cohabit peacefully How to build a more equitable and balanced world is the challenge facing us. We need to embrace and practice our long aged concepts of ubuntu, harambee and batho pele among others in creating and consolidating the new world order. Africa is underdeveloped. It requires serious structural modification in our current mindset, thinking and actions which calls for total involvement of every citizen. The ideas advanced in this book are strategies and pathways for dealing with the problems of poverty, corruption, the distribution of power, deterrence, good governance, health, human capacity building and the challenge of bringing about a systemic structural functional governance construct for the African continent.

Mistaking Africa Curtis Keim, Carolyn Somerville, 2021-12-27. For many in the west the mention of Africa immediately conjures up images of safaris, ferocious animals, sparsely dressed tribesmen and impenetrable jungles. Newspaper headlines rarely touch on Africa but when they do they often mention authoritarian rule, corruption, genocide, devastating illnesses or civil war. Advertising, movies, amusement parks, cartoons and many other corners of society all convey strong mental images of the continent that together form a collective consciousness. Few think to question these perceptions or how they came to be so deeply lodged in western minds. Mistaking Africa looks at the historical evolution of this mind set and examines the role that popular media plays in its creation. The authors address the most prevalent myths and preconceptions and demonstrate how these prevent a true understanding of the enormously diverse peoples and cultures of Africa. Updated throughout the fifth edition considers images of Africa from across the world and provides new analysis of what Africans are doing themselves to rewrite the stories of their continent particularly through social and digital media. Mistaking Africa is an important book for African studies courses and for anyone interested in unraveling misperceptions about the continent.

Handbook of Development Economics Dani Rodrick, M.R. Rosenzweig, 2009-11-09. What guidance does academic research really provide to economic policy development? The critical and analytical surveys in this volume investigate links between policies and outcomes by surveying work from broad macroeconomic policies to interventions in microfinance. Asserting that there are no universal correspondences between policies and outcomes, contributors demonstrate instead that only an intense familiarity with the development context and the universe of applicable economic models can generate successful policies. Getting cause and effect right is essential for policy design and implementation. With the goal of drawing researchers and policy makers closer, this volume highlights our increasing understanding of ways to combine economic theorizing with careful, thoughtful empirical work. Presents an accurate, self contained survey of the current state of the field. Summarizes the most recent discussions and elucidates new developments. Although original material is also included, the main aim is the provision of comprehensive and accessible surveys.
