From free and open source software, Creative Commons licenses, Wikipedia, remix music, video mashups, and open science, digital media has spawned a new sharing economy in competition with media giants. Media journalist Bollier provides a comprehensive history of the attempts of this new free culture community to create a digital republic committed to freedom and innovation. Interweaving disparate and eclectic strands of activity with major technological developments, pivotal legal struggles, and case studies, Bollier exposes the magical processes of this era. Aleph, Paulo Coelho, 2011. A U.S. release of an internationally best-selling title by the author of The Alchemist, follows Paulo's world-spanning effort to achieve spiritual renewal and human connection on a journey during which he reconnects with a woman from an earlier life while transcending time and space. Searcher, 2008. Implementing ESG into Real Estate Contracts, Sabine Wieduwilt, 2025-01-07. This book looks into different aspects of implementing ESG into real estate contracts from a European perspective. It covers general aspects, contract type specific aspects, and then property usage type specific aspects. General topics cover legal frameworks, the social and governance perspective based on EU sustainable finance regulations. Contract type specific questions cover different contract types. The team of authors then addresses specific issues relating to different types of property use, such as office, retail, logistics, hospitality, and data centres. The focus of the work is on EU so that the content can provide food for thought for the work in different EU countries. The book thus supports practitioners in compiling their personal toolkit for use in individual cases.
