Cinema/American Culture John Belton, 2015-07-27 American Cinema American Culture looks at the interplay between American cinema and mass culture from the 1890s to 2011. It begins with an examination of the basic narrative and stylistic features of classical Hollywood cinema. It then studies the genres of silent melodrama, the musical, American comedy, the war, combat film, film noir, the western, and the horror and science fiction film, investigating the way in which movies shape and are shaped by the larger cultural concerns of the nation as a whole. The book concludes with a discussion of post-World War II Hollywood, giving separate chapter coverage to the effects of the Cold War, 3D television, the counterculture of the 1960s, directors from the film school generation, and the cultural concerns of Hollywood from the 1970s through 2011. Ideal for Introduction to American Cinema courses, American Film History courses, and Introductory Film Appreciation courses, this text provides a cultural overview of the phenomenon of the American moviegoing experience. Ida Lupino, Director Therese Grisham, Julie Grossman, 2017-05-23 Dominated by men and bound by the restrictive Hays Code postwar Hollywood offered little support for a female director who sought to make unique films on controversial subjects But Ida Lupino bucked the system writing and directing a string of movies that exposed the dark underside of American society on topics such as rape polio unwed motherhood bigamy exploitative sports and serial murder The first in depth study devoted to Lupino's directorial work this book makes a strong case for her as a trailblazing feminist auteur a filmmaker with a clear signature style and an abiding interest in depicting the plights of postwar American women Ida Lupino Director not only examines her work as a cinematic auteur but also offers a serious consideration of her diverse and long ranging career getting her start in Hollywood as an actress in her teens and twenties directing her first films in her early thirties and later working as an acclaimed director of television westerns sitcoms and suspense dramas It also demonstrates how Lupino fused generic elements of film noir and the social problem film to create a distinctive directorial style that was both highly expressionistic and grittily realistic Ida Lupino Director thus shines a long awaited spotlight on one of our greatest filmmakers

Reimagining the Promised Land Rodney Wallis, 2020-09-17 While Israel has seemingly been a minor presence in Hollywood cinema Reimagining the Promised Land argues that there is a long history of Hollywood deploying images of Israel as a means of articulating an idealized notion of American national identity This argument is developed through readings of The Ten Commandments Cecil B DeMille 1956 Ben Hur A Tale of the Christ William Wyler 1959 Exodus Otto Preminger 1960 Cast a Giant Shadow Melville Shavelson 1966 Black Sunday John Frankenheimer 1977 The Delta Force Menahem Golan 1986 and Munich Steven Spielberg 2005 The mobilization of Israel that pervades this eclectic group of films effectively demonstrates one of the more surreptitious ways in which Hollywood has historically constructed and circulated dominant notions of American national identity Moreover in examining the most notable Hollywood representations of the Jewish state the book offers an informed historical overview of the cultural forces that have contributed to popular understandings within the United States of the state of Israel Israel's Arab neighbours and also the Arab Israeli conflict

Describing Cinema Timothy Corrigan, 2024 Written by award winning author Timothy Corrigan Describing Cinema is an argument for the creative energies of writing in general and for the revelatory intersection of personal experience and film analysis Describing Cinema demonstrates the pleasures and energies of precise discussions and detailed writing about the films that move us
