Busumtwi-Sam, L. Dobuzinskis, 2002-11-26 James Busumtwi Sam and Laurent Dobuzinskis have assembled a leading team of experts in the field to examine how phenomena associated with globalization impact on political economy in theory and in practice The volume employs a variety of theoretical and analytical approaches to examine the very changeable nature of the global political economy in terms of academic analysis policy and practice Dar Al Islam--the Mediterranean, the World System, and the Wider Europe Peter Herrmann, Arno Tausch, 2005 With the process of a wider Europe EU Commission President Romano Prodi's ring of friends that extends from Marrakech in Morocco to St Petersburg in Russia gathering speed the growing rift between Europe and America also is about how to deal politically with the countries of the Mediterranean Muslim world The house of Islam Dar al Islam was pivotal to the European path to the Renaissance and to the re discovery of classic Greek philosophy The Mediterranean policy of the European Union aims at a positive and co operative relationship with the region A successful integration of the Mediterranean South would have tremendous and positive repercussions for regional and world peace World wide leading experts from the field of world systems analysis economics integration theory political science theology and area studies agnostics Christians Jews and Muslims alike discuss the issue with European decision makers The outcome is an interdisciplinary evaluation of this projected export of peace co operation dialogue and stability in the framework of world centre periphery relationships Global Forces and Local Life-Worlds

Ulrike Schuerkens,2010-09-17 How are global forces impacting on local lifestyles Where does the personal stand in relation to globalization Global Forces and Local Life Worlds explores these questions using a mixture of sociological and anthropological analysis and case study methods Demonstrating the tensions between retaining cultural integrity in the face of the levelling processes associated with modernity this book locates the problems of globalization and localization in the appropriate anthropological and sociological dimensions examines the relationship between culture and identity and explores the varieties of modernity Reflexive Representations Johannes Angermüller,2004 This volume addresses the manifold conjunctures interactions and disjunctures that occur at various levels of what has come to be rubricated under the buzzword of globalization While this term has the merit of reperiodizing our account of the capitalist dynamics it simultaneously points to a crisis of representation both in political and epistemological terms The contributions collected in this volume being reflexive representations from the social sciences and humanities assess some of the manifold aspects of this crisis

Inside/Outside R. B. J. Walker,1993 In this book Rob Walker offers an original analysis of the relationship between twentieth century theories of international relations and the political theory of civil society since the early modern period He views theories of international relations both as an ideological expression of the modern state and as a clear indication of the difficulties of thinking about a world politics characterized by profound spatiotemporal accelerations International relations theories should be seen the author argues more as aspects of contemporary world politics than as explanations of contemporary world politics These theories are examined in the light of recent debates about modernity and post modernity sovereignty and political identity and the limits of modern social and political theory This book is a major contribution to the field of critical international relations and will be of interest to social and political theorists and political scientists as well as students and scholars of international relations Geographies of Development Robert Potter,Tony Binns,Jennifer Elliott,Etienne Nel,David Smith,2019-03-07 Now in its fourth edition Geographies of Development An Introduction to Development Studies remains a core balanced and comprehensive introductory textbook for students of Development Studies Development Geography and related fields This clear and concise text encourages critical engagement by integrating theory alongside practice and related key topics throughout It demonstrates informatively that ideas concerning development have been many and varied and highly contested varying from time to time and from place to place Clearly written and accessible for students who have no prior knowledge of development the book provides the basics in terms of a geographical approach to development what situation is where when and why Over 200 maps charts tables textboxes and pictures break up the text and offer alternative ways of showing the information The text is further enhanced by a range of pedagogical features chapter outlines case studies key thinkers critical reflections key points and summaries discussion topics and further reading Geographies of Development continues to be an invaluable introductory text not only for geography students but also anyone in area studies international studies and development studies Holistic Mission Brian Woolnough,Wonsuk Ma,2011-01-01

Holistic mission or integral mission implies God is concerned with the whole person the whole community body mind and spirit Many Christians concentrate only on one aspect This book reaffirms that to be true to the Bible to follow the example of Jesus the church must address the whole person in all their needs It considers the meaning of the holistic gospel how it has developed and implications for the individual Christian for the local church for denominations and church groups for missionary societies for Christian NGOs and for theological training institutions It takes a global eclectic approach with 19 writers church leaders academics and practitioners all of whom have much experience in and commitment to holistic mission It addresses critically and honestly one of the most exciting challenging and important issues facing the church today To be part of God's plan for God's people the church must take holistic mission to the world

Encyclopedia of Political Economy Phillip O'Hara, 1999-02-04 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index The International Law on Foreign Investment M. Sornarajah, 1994-08-18 The author examines different techniques adopted by States for attracting foreign investment and for ensuring that foreign investment serves their economic objectives

Transnational Democracy James Anderson, 2002-11 A multidisciplinary array of experts explore the issues related to globalisation and democracy They focus on federalism multi cultural societies the European Union and potential agents for the democratisation of global institutions

Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass, 2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez
