Differences Between Modernism And Postmodernism:

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Distinction of 'postmodernist' from 'modernist' Melissa Grönebaum, 2014-02-03 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Didactics for the subject English History of Literature Eras grade 2 0 National University of Ireland Galway language English abstract The distinction of modern and postmodern artists sometimes seems to be a bit challenging do to a lack of chronological boundaries between modernism and postmodernism which are additionally extremely blurred To determine artists by the dates of their works is not necessarily possible since the epoch of postmodern art did not entered every country at the same time Although Charles Jencks sets the death of architectural modernism on July 15th 1972 at 3 32pm modernism in general is said to end with World War II In North America however it rather ends with the Great Depression Thus the broad agreement on the period of Modernism is from 1885 1935 Modernists continued writing even after 1945 but did not earn much attention any longer The period of postmodernism must have begun some when between then and 1960 Obviously the passage of modernism and postmodernism is fluent Postmodernism is said to be nostalgia and retrospective Collages and imitation are regarded as being postmodern as well as any rejection of modernism Modernism in contrast would display the avant garde forms of expression and the shock of the new But those definitions are general and just give a hint to what could be the distinction of modernism and postmodernism Because of this in the present essay I will elaborate and compare the ways that postmodernist might be distinguished from modernist and solve the question of the differences between these epochs To do so I will focus on terms of literature visual arts and architecture which are regarded as being characteristically for modernism or postmodernism

Modern/Postmodern Peter V. Zima, 2010-08-05 Modern Postmodern Society
Philosophy Literature offers new definitions of modernism and postmodernism by presenting an original theoretical system of thought that explains the differences between these two key movements Taking a contrastive approach Peter V Zima identifies three key concepts in the relationship between modernism and postmodernism ambiguity ambivalence and indifference Zima defines modernism and postmodernism as problematics as opposed to aesthetics stylistics or ideologies Unlike modernism which is grounded in an increasing ambivalence towards social norms and values postmodernity is presented as an era of indifference i e of interchangeable norms values and perspectives Taking an historical interdisciplinary and intercultural approach that engages with Anglo American and European debates the book describes the transition from late modernist ambivalence to postmodern indifference in the contexts of philosophy literature and sociology This is the ideal guide to the relationship between modernism and postmodernism for students and scholars throughout the humanities

Postmodernity The Handbook of Humanistic Psychology Kirk J. Schneider, J. Fraser Pierson, James F. T. Bugental, 2014-02-14 The Second Edition of the cutting edge work The Handbook of Humanistic Psychology by Kirk J. Schneider, J. Fraser Pierson and James F. T. Bugental represents the very latest scholarship in the field of humanistic psychology and psychotherapy. Set against trends inclined toward psychological standardization and medicalization, the handbook offers a rich tapestry of reflection by the leading person-centered scholars of our time. Their range in topics is far reaching from the historical theoretical and methodological to the spiritual psychotherapeutic and multicultural. The new edition of this widely adopted and highly praised work has been thoroughly updated in accordance with the most current knowledge and includes thirteen new chapters and sections as well as contributions from twenty-three additional authors to extend the humanistic legacy to the emerging generation of students, scholars, and practitioners.

Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English, 2012-01-01 How can the short story help to redefine modernism, postmodernism, and their interrelationship? What is the status of the short story in modern literary history? These are the central questions that the essays collected in this volume try to answer from different perspectives through readings of short fiction in English and accounts of the genre's theorisations. The essays by a group of international scholars tackle theoretical issues that are central in approaches to both movements, such as periodisation, autonomy, high vs. popular literature, totality vs. fragmentation, surface vs. depth, otherness, representation, and above all, the subject and its vicissitudes. Because it blends theory-based arguments into the approaches to the short fiction of mainly canonical authors (Joyce, Woolf, Lewis, Ballard, Carter, Rushdie, or Wallace), Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English is of interest not only to readers and scholars of the short story but also to those coming from the fields of literary theory and literary history.
